[Assented to 17 June 1993]

THE PARLIAMENT OF QUÉBEC ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

c. C-37.1,
ss. 84.4
and 84.5,
added

1. The Act respecting the Communauté urbaine de l'Outaouais (R.S.Q., chapter C-37.1) is amended by inserting, after section 84.3, the following sections:

Economic development

“84.4 The Community is competent to promote the economic development of its territory with a view to furthering its economic expansion and diversity.

Powers of community

To that end, the Community may, in particular,

(1) facilitate the establishment of businesses and the inflow of capital in its territory, and favour the carrying out of projects having a significant economic impact;

(2) promote, on outside markets, the goods and services produced in its territory;

(3) establish connections with agencies engaged in the economic development of its territory;

(4) set up sector-based concertation groups for the purpose of establishing intervention priorities.

Economic
development
agency

“84.5 The Community may create an economic development agency and delegate to it, on the conditions it determines, the exercise of all or part of the competence provided for in section 84.4. It shall allocate to it the funds necessary to exercise such competence, on the conditions it determines.”
