CHAPTER 76

An Act to amend certain pension plans of the public and parapublic sectors

[Assented to 20 December 1989]

THE PARLIAMENT OF QUÉBEC ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

ACT RESPECTING THE GOVERNMENT AND PUBLIC EMPLOYEES RETIREMENT PLAN

c. R-10,
s. 21,
replaced

1. Section 21 of the Act respecting the Government and Public Employees Retirement Plan (R.S.Q., chapter R-10) is replaced by the following section:

Salary
insurance

“21. The days and parts of a day of a period during which an employee is entitled to salary insurance benefits are credited with exemption from contributions up to two years of service.

Exemption
from
contributions

However, exemption from contributions shall continue as long as the employee is entitled to salary insurance benefits under a compulsory plan in force on 31 December 1989 which, on that date, provides, in favour of certain groups of employees covered by this plan, benefits payable up to the age of 65 years or up to the age of retirement providing the employee belongs to one of those groups and the group's participation in the salary insurance plan is maintained.

Contributions
paid by the
insurer

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the salary insurance plan so provides, the insurer shall pay the contributions which would have been paid by the employee, and they shall be credited to the account of the employee.

Income
replacement
indemnity

The days and parts of a day during which a female employee receives the income replacement indemnity provided for in section 36 of the Act respecting occupational health and safety (chapter S-2.1) by reason of the exercise of a right granted under sections 40, 41 and 46 of the said Act, are credited with exemption from contributions.”

c. R-10,
s. 85.17, am.

2. Section 85.17 of the said Act, amended by section 35 of chapter 82 of the statutes of 1988, is again amended by replacing the word and figures “31 December 1989” in the first line of the second paragraph by the word and figures “1 July 1990”.

c. R-10,
s. 176, am.

3. Section 176 of the said Act is amended

(1) by replacing the words “, the Teachers Pension Plan and the Civil Service Superannuation Plan” in the second and third lines by the words “and of the Teachers Pension Plan”;

(2) by adding the following paragraph after the first paragraph:

Difference
assumed by
the employer

“In the case of the Civil Service Superannuation Plan, the difference between the cost of the plan and the contributions paid by the officers within the meaning of that plan shall be assumed by the employers.”

c. R-10,
s. 177, am.

4. Section 177 of the said Act is amended

(1) by replacing the words “the plans mentioned in section 174” in the second and third lines of the first paragraph by the words “the Government and Public Employees Retirement Plan and the Teachers Pension Plan”;

(2) by replacing the words “the plans” in the first line of the second paragraph by the words “such plans”;

(3) by adding, at the end of the second paragraph, the following: “In the case of the Civil Service Superannuation Plan, the rate of contribution shall no longer be revised and, from 1 January 1990, it shall remain at the rate in force for the year 1989.”

ACT RESPECTING THE TEACHERS PENSION PLAN

c. R-11,
s. 18,
replaced

5. Section 18 of the Act respecting the Teachers Pension Plan (R.S.Q., chapter R-11) is replaced by the following section:

Salary
insurance

18. The days and parts of a day of a period during which a teacher is entitled to salary insurance benefits are credited with exemption from contributions up to two years of service.

Exemption
from
contributions

However, exemption from contributions shall continue as long as the teacher is entitled to salary insurance benefits under a compulsory plan in force on 31 December 1989 which, on that date, provides, in favour of certain groups of teachers covered by this plan, benefits payable up to the age of 65 years or up to the age of retirement providing the teacher belongs to one of those groups and the group's participation in the salary insurance plan is maintained.

Contributions
paid by the
insurer

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the salary insurance plan so provides, the insurer shall pay the contributions which would have been paid by the teacher, and they shall be credited to the account of the teacher.

Income
replacement
indemnity

The days and parts of a day during which a female teacher receives the income replacement indemnity provided for in section 36 of the Act respecting occupational health and safety (chapter S-2.1) by reason of the exercise of a right granted under sections 40, 41 and 46 of the said Act, are credited with exemption from contributions."

ACT RESPECTING THE CIVIL SERVICE SUPERANNUATION PLAN

c. R-12,
s. 56, am.

6. Section 56 of the Act respecting the Civil Service Superannuation Plan (R.S.Q., chapter R-12), amended by section 118 of chapter 82 of the statutes of 1988, is again amended

(1) by adding, after subparagraph 5 of the first paragraph, the following subparagraphs:

"(6) has attained 60 years of age;

"(7) by adding his age to the number of his years of service, obtains a total of 90 or more.";

(2) by inserting, after the first paragraph, the following paragraph:

Reduction

"In the cases mentioned in subparagraphs 6 and 7 of the first paragraph, the pension of the officer is reduced for its duration by 0.5 % per month, computed for each month included between the date on which the pension is granted to the officer and,

(1) in the case described in subparagraph 6 of the first paragraph, the nearest date on which it would otherwise have been granted to him under subparagraph 2, 4 or 7 of the first paragraph;

(2) in the case described in subparagraph 7 of the first paragraph, the date of his sixtieth birthday."

c. R-12,
s. 60,
replaced

7. Section 60 of the said Act is replaced by the following section:

Credited service “60. The days and parts of a day of a period during which an officer is entitled to salary insurance benefits are credited with exemption from contributions up to two years of service.

Salary insurance However, exemption from contributions shall continue as long as the officer is entitled to salary insurance benefits under a compulsory plan in force on 31 December 1989 which, on that date, provides, in favour of certain groups of officers covered by this plan, benefits payable up to the age of 65 years or up to the age of retirement providing the officer belongs to one of those groups and the group’s participation in the salary insurance plan is maintained.

Contributions Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the salary insurance plan so provides, the insurer shall pay the contributions which would have been paid by the officer, and they shall be credited to the account of the officer.

Credited service The days and parts of a day during which a female officer receives the income replacement indemnity provided for in section 36 of the Act respecting occupational health and safety (chapter S-2.1) by reason of the exercise of a right granted under sections 40, 41 and 46 of the said Act, are credited with exemption from contributions.”

c. R-12, s. 72, am. 8. Section 72 of the said Act is amended by adding the words “or, as the case may be, any amount determined by the Government pursuant to sections 174 and 176 of the Act respecting the Government and Public Employees Retirement Plan” after the word “contribution” in the third line of the first paragraph.
