“PART III

“COURT OF QUÉBEC

“DIVISION I

“JURISDICTION, REGIONAL SECTIONS AND DIVISIONS OF THE COURT

Court of original jurisdiction

“79. The Court of Québec is a court of original jurisdiction in civil, criminal and penal matters and in youth matters.

Jurisdiction

The Court or the judges thereof shall also sit on administrative matters or on appeals in the cases provided for by law.

Regional sections

“80. The Court of Québec shall consist of two regional sections, the Montréal Regional Section and the Québec Regional Section, corresponding to the appeal divisions for Montréal and Québec.

Divisions of the Court

Each regional section shall consist of three divisions, namely the Civil Division, the Criminal and Penal Division and the Youth Division.

Expropria-
tion Division

The Court shall also consist of an Expropriation Division, established under the Expropriation Act (chapter E-24).

Civil matters

“81. In civil matters, the Court has jurisdiction within the limits provided for by law in respect of civil proceedings brought under the Code of Civil Procedure or under any other Act.

Jurisdiction

Such jurisdiction shall be exercised, in particular, by the judges assigned to the Civil Division.

Criminal and penal matters

“82. In criminal and penal matters, the Court has jurisdiction within the limits provided for by law in respect of proceedings brought under the Criminal Code, the Summary Convictions Act (chapter P-15) or any other Act.

Jurisdiction

Such jurisdiction shall be exercised, in particular, by the judges assigned to the Criminal and Penal Division.

Youth matters

“83. In youth matters, the Court has jurisdiction within the limits provided for by law

(1) to exercise the powers and functions of the Youth Court, in accordance with the Young Offenders Act (Statutes of Canada, 1982, chapter 110);

(2) in respect of youth protection, in accordance with the Youth Protection Act (chapter P-34.1);

(3) in respect of proceedings brought under the Summary Convictions Act where the defendant is under 18 years of age or was under 18 years of age at the time of the offence;

(4) in respect of adoption.

Exclusive
jurisdiction

Such jurisdiction shall be exercised, in particular, by the judges assigned to the Youth Division and shall be exclusive to the Court, except where otherwise provided by law.

Court of record

“84. The Court of Québec is a court of record.

"DIVISION II

"JUDGES OF THE COURT

"§ 1.—Constitution of the Court and appointment and removal of judges Composition "85. The Court of Québec is composed of 279 judges, including the chief judge, two senior associate chief judges and seven associate chief judges.

Appointment by Government "86. The Government shall, by a commission under the Great Seal, appoint the judges during good behaviour. The regional section to which a judge is assigned and his place of residence shall be determined in the notice of appointment.

Qualifications "87. The judges shall be appointed from among advocates having at least ten years' practice.

Years of practice The years during which a person acquired pertinent legal experience after obtaining a diploma of admission to the Barreau du Québec or a certificate of competence to practice the profession of advocate in Québec may be considered years of practice.

Selection "88. No person shall be appointed a judge unless he has been previously selected according to the procedure established by Government regulation for the selection of persons apt for appointment as judges. The Government may, in particular,

(1) determine the procedure by which a person may become a candidate for the office of judge;

(2) authorize the Minister of Justice to establish a selection committee to assess the competence of candidates for the office of judge and advise him in that respect;

(3) fix the composition and mode of appointment of the members of the committee;

(4) determine the criteria of selection that the committee is to consider;

(5) determine the information that the committee may require from a candidate and the consultations it may make.

Selection committee Members of the selection committee are not entitled to remuneration, except in such cases, under such conditions and to such extent as may be determined by the Government. Expenses incurred in the exercise of their functions shall however be reimbursed, subject to the conditions and to the extent determined by the Government.

Oath “89. Before entering upon his duties of office, every judge shall make the oath or solemn affirmation prescribed in Schedule II before the chief judge, a senior associate chief judge or an associate chief judge.

Chief judge, senior associate chief judge and associate chief judge “90. The Government shall, by a commission under the Great Seal, appoint from among the judges of the Court, the chief judge and, after consultation with the latter, a senior associate chief judge for each of the regional sections of the Court and, within each of those sections, an associate chief judge for each division of the Court. Notwithstanding the foregoing, two associate chief judges shall be appointed for the Civil Division of the Regional Section of Montréal.

Place of residence The judges shall exercise their functions at Montréal or at Québec. They shall reside in the city or in the immediate vicinity where they exercise their functions.

Term of office “91. The term of office of the chief judge, a senior associate chief judge or an associate chief judge is of seven years and cannot be renewed.

Continuance in office “92. Notwithstanding the expiry of his term, the chief judge, a senior associate chief judge or an associate chief judge shall remain in office until he is replaced.

Leave of absence In addition, a judge who has continued in office as chief judge or senior associate chief judge for at least seven years is entitled to a year’s leave of absence with salary to be devoted to studies, research or any other legal activity compatible with the judicial function.

Retired judge “93. At the request of the chief judge, the Government may, where it considers it in the best interest of justice, authorize, for the time it determines, a retired judge to exercise the judicial functions that the chief judge assigns to him.

Additional judges “94. The Government may, in accordance with this subsection, appoint as many additional judges to the Court as there are judges who have been unable to exercise their functions for at least two years owing to disability within the meaning of the group insurance plans available to judges.

Number of judges The number of judges who are not so unable to exercise their functions must never exceed the number indicated in section 85, except where a judge who has been so unable resumes his functions. In this latter case, the number of judges who are not so unable to exercise their functions must be reduced upon any vacancy among them.

Removal “95. The Government may remove a judge only upon a report of the Court of Appeal made after inquiry at the request of the Minister of Justice.

“§ 2.—Functions of the chief judge

Chief judge “96. The chief judge has the direction of the Court.

Functions The functions of the chief judge shall be, in particular,

(1) to ensure that the general policy of the Court in judicial matters is applied;

(2) to coordinate, apportion and supervise the work of the judges, who must comply with his orders and directives in that regard;

(3) to ensure that the judicial code of ethics is observed.

Senior associate chief judges “97. The senior associate chief judges, in each of the regional sections, shall assist and advise the chief judge in the performance of his duties and shall exercise the powers of the chief judge under the authority of the latter.

Functions In cooperation with the associate chief judges of their respective regional section, the senior associate chief judges shall, in particular,

(1) see to the allotment of cases and the scheduling of sittings of the Court;

(2) determine the duties and functions of a judge who is required to exercise his jurisdiction over matters that are not within the jurisdiction of the division to which he is assigned.

Authority The orders of senior associate chief judges shall be executed in the same manner as those of the chief judge and their signature shall give force and effect to any document within the competence of the chief judge.

Associate chief judges “98. Every associate chief judge shall advise and assist the senior associate chief judge as regards the operation and administration of the division of the Court to which he is appointed.

Absence of the chief judge “99. Where the chief judge is absent or unable to act, the senior associate chief judge having seniority of appointment to the Court shall exercise the functions of the chief judge. He shall do so, notwithstanding the fact that his own term may have expired, until the chief judge resumes his functions or is replaced.

Absence of a senior associate
chief judge

“100. Where a senior associate chief judge is absent or unable to act, the chief judge shall designate an associate chief judge of the regional section concerned to exercise the functions of the senior associate chief judge. The associate chief judge so designated shall exercise such functions, notwithstanding the fact that his own term may have expired, until the senior associate chief judge resumes his functions or is replaced.

Absence of an associate
chief judge

“101. Where an associate chief judge is absent or unable to act, the senior associate chief judge of the regional section concerned shall designate a judge of the division concerned to exercise the functions of the associate chief judge until the latter resumes his functions or is replaced.

Report of activities

“102. Every senior associate chief judge shall transmit to the chief judge, at least twice a year, a report of the activities of his regional section. The report shall contain, on a monthly basis, for each division, each judicial district and the section as a whole, the following particulars:

- (1) the number of days on which sittings were held and the average time devoted thereto;
- (2) the number of cases heard;
- (3) the places and dates of the hearings;
- (4) the number of cases taken under advisement and the time devoted to the advisements;
- (5) the number of judgments rendered.

“§ 3.—Coordinating judges

Coordinating judges

“103. The chief judge may, with the approval of the Government, designate coordinating judges from among the judges of the Court, where the circumstances so require.

Term of office

In the same manner, the chief judge shall fix the term of office of every coordinating judge.

Duration

“104. The term of office of a coordinating judge shall not exceed two years, but may be renewed.

Functions

“105. In each regional section, the senior associate chief judge shall, in agreement with the associate chief judges, determine the functions exercised by the coordinating judges.

“§ 4.—Jurisdiction and assignment of judges

Jurisdiction of judges “106. Every judge has jurisdiction throughout Québec over all matters under the jurisdiction of the Court, whatever the regional section and division to which he is assigned.

Jurisdiction of judges At the request of the senior associate chief judge of the regional section to which he is assigned, a judge shall exercise the jurisdiction of the Court in an area that is not within the jurisdiction of the division to which he is assigned.

Assignment to a regional section “107. The assignment of a judge to a regional section shall be determined by the Government.

Assignment to a division The assignment of a judge to a division shall be determined by the chief judge after consultation with the senior associate chief judge concerned.

Modification to a notice of appointment “108. Any modification to the notice of appointment of a judge concerning the regional section assigned to him or his place of residence shall be decided by the Government on the recommendation of the chief judge, who shall have previously consulted with the senior associate chief judges concerned. The Government may make such a decision only if the period prescribed in section 112 for filing an appeal is expired or, where an appeal is filed, if the recommendation of the chief judge is confirmed.

Temporary assignment “109. The temporary assignment of a judge to another regional section shall be decided by the chief judge, after consultation with the senior associate chief judges.

Consent to modification “110. No recommendation under section 108 may be made unless the judge concerned consents to such modification to his notice of appointment or unless the chief judge considers that the circumstances so require; in the latter case, the judge concerned must have been given the opportunity to present his views in that respect. The same applies to a decision under section 109.

Prior consultation “111. The assignment of a judge to another division shall be determined by the chief judge, after consultation with the senior associate chief judge and the associate chief judges concerned and after the judge concerned has been given the opportunity to present his views in that respect.

Notice of decision “112. The chief judge who makes a recommendation under section 108 or a decision respecting the permanent assignment of a judge to another division under section 111 shall notify the judge concerned. The latter may, within fifteen days, appeal to the Conseil de la magistrature which may confirm or quash the recommendation or the decision of the chief judge.

Residence “113. Unless the assignment to another regional section is temporary, the judge shall change his place of residence within one year of his new assignment.

Report of chief judge “114. The chief judge shall, each month, report to the Minister of Justice any decision made under the second paragraph of section 107 or under section 109 or 111.

“§ 5.—Salary, allowances and social benefits

Salary and additional remuneration “115. The Government shall fix, by order, the salary of the judges and the additional remuneration attached to the office of chief judge, senior associate chief judge, associate chief judge or coordinating judge. Once fixed, the salary and amounts of additional remuneration cannot be reduced.

Compensation “116. A judge who has held the office of chief judge, senior associate chief judge or associate chief judge for at least seven years is entitled to receive, until his salary as a judge is equal to the amount of salary and additional remuneration he was receiving when he ceased to hold such office, the difference between that latter amount and his salary.

Municipal Court The same applies where the judge is appointed to the Municipal Court of Montréal, Laval or Québec.

Substitute judge “117. Where an associate chief judge or a coordinating judge is absent or unable to act, the judge appointed to replace him is, for the period during which he holds that office, entitled to the additional remuneration attached to it. The same applies where a senior associate chief judge replaces the chief judge or where an associate chief judge replaces a senior associate chief judge.

Retired judge “118. A retired judge authorized by the Government to exercise the judicial functions that the chief judge assigns to him is entitled to receive the salary of a judge, from which an amount equal to that of his pension shall be deducted.

Expense allowance “119. A judge who must travel in the performance of his duties is entitled to be paid, as an expense allowance, in addition to his actual travelling expenses, an indemnity the amount and the terms and conditions of payment of which shall be determined by order of the Government.

- Moving allowance “120. A judge who, pursuant to section 113, is required to change his place of residence is entitled to be paid, as a moving allowance, an indemnity the amount and the terms and conditions of payment of which shall be determined by order of the Government.
- Expenses attached to office “121. The Government may, by order, establish the amount and nature of the expenses that may be incurred by a judge in the performance of his duties and for which he may be reimbursed.
- Amount The amount may vary according as the judge is the chief judge, a senior associate chief judge, an associate chief judge, a coordinating judge or any other judge of the Court.
- Social benefits “122. The Government may, by order, establish social benefits other than the pension to which the judges are entitled and fix their contributions.
- Coming into force “123. Any order made pursuant to sections 115 to 122 comes into force on the date of its publication in the Gazette officielle du Québec or on any earlier or later date fixed therein.
- Advisory committee “124. From 1 July 1988 and every three years thereafter, the Government shall set up a committee consisting of three persons entrusted with examining whether the remuneration, pension plan and other social benefits of the members of the Court of Québec are adequate, and with advising it in that respect.
- Duties Within the scope of its duties the committee shall, in particular, take into account the relative value of the office of judge by comparison with other high public offices.
- Report “125. Within six months of its formation, the committee shall submit a report of the recommendations it considers appropriate to the Government.
- Tabling Within thirty days of receipt of the report, it shall be tabled before the National Assembly if it is in session or, if it is not sitting, the report shall be tabled within thirty days after the opening of the next session or after resumption, as the case may be.
- Remuneration and expenses of members “126. The members of the committee are not entitled to any remuneration, except in such cases, on such conditions and to such extent as may be determined by the Government. They are, however, entitled to the reimbursement of expenses incurred in the performance of their duties on the conditions and to the extent determined by the Government.

Consolidated revenue fund

“127. The sums required for the carrying out of this subdivision are taken out of the consolidated revenue fund.

“§ 6.—Judicial office

Ex officio justices of the peace

“128. The judges are ex officio justices of the peace for the whole of Québec and have all the rights and powers of one or two justices of the peace, as the case may be.

Exclusive office

“129. Subject to the provisions of this subdivision, the office of judge shall be exclusive.

Incompatibility

The office of judge is incompatible, in particular, with the office of director or manager of a legal person or any other constituted body, or with the conduct, even indirect, of commercial activities.

Functions of arbitrator

“130. A judge may, after consultation with the chief judge and with prior authorization of the Minister of Justice, exercise the functions of arbitrator or be a member of an organization performing such functions. In this event, the judge is entitled only to his salary as a judge and to the expense allowance fixed pursuant to this Act.

Functions of part-time coroner

“131. A judge may, after consultation with the chief judge and the Minister of Justice, be appointed by the Solicitor General to exercise the functions of part-time coroner in accordance with section 7 of the Act respecting the determination of the causes and circumstances of death (R.S.Q., chapter R-0.2). In this event, the judge is entitled only to his salary as a judge and to the expense allowance fixed pursuant to this Act, and the oath made pursuant to this Act is valid for the exercise of his functions as part-time coroner.

Mandate entrusted by Government

“132. A judge may carry out any mandate entrusted to him by order of the Government, after consultation with the chief judge. In this event, he is entitled to the additional salary or to such fees as may be fixed by the Government.

Mandate entrusted by the Governor General in Council

“133. A judge may carry out any mandate entrusted to him by the Governor General in Council, with prior authorization of the Government. In this event, he is entitled to the salary or fees fixed by the Governor General in Council, with the consent of the Government.

Teaching activities

“134. A judge may, with the written consent of the chief judge, engage in teaching activities for which he may be remunerated.

“DIVISION III

“COURT PROCEEDINGS

“§ 1.—Sittings of the Court

Presidency “135. The sittings of a division of the Court shall be presided by one judge, except where otherwise provided by law.

Sittings “136. The Court may sit on any juridical day in the year.

Dates of sittings “137. After consultation with the chief judge, the senior associate chief judge shall fix the dates of the sittings of the Court for each division and in each judicial district within his jurisdiction.

Place of sittings “138. The Court shall sit at the chief-place of the judicial district, at the place fixed by order of the Minister of Justice.

Place of sittings The Minister of Justice may, by order, direct, for each judicial district, that, in addition to the chief-place of the judicial district, the Court shall sit at such place as he may determine. Notice of such order shall be published in the Gazette officielle du Québec.

“§ 2.—Officers of the Court

Selection of clerks “139. The clerks and deputy clerks of the Court shall be selected from among the persons appointed in accordance with the Public Service Act.

Delegation of powers “140. A clerk may designate, from among his personnel, those persons who may perform certain acts in his stead or in the stead of the deputy clerk, provided such acts do not require the exercise of judicial or discretionary power.

Custodian of the records “141. The clerk is the custodian of the records. He shall report on the proceedings taken and information received in the discharge of his administrative duties whenever required so to do by the Minister of Justice, the chief judge, a senior associate chief judge or an associate chief judge.

Powers of clerk “142. The clerk may, where there is no judge present or able to act, record the appearance or default of any party or witness summoned to appear and adjourn the sitting to another day of session or to any later date fixed by the judge. When exercising such duties in criminal or penal matters, the clerk is deemed to be a justice of the peace.

- Sheriffs “143. Sheriffs are also officers of the Court.
- Constables “144. Constables in office in the judicial district where the sittings of the Court are held are officers of that Court.
- Bailiff “145. Every bailiff shall, where so required by a judge, act as constable without special appointment for such purpose.

“§ 3.—Rules of practice

Adoption of rules of practice “146. A majority of the judges of a division of the Court may, at a meeting convened for that purpose by the chief judge or by way of a consultation held at his request by certified or registered mail, adopt for one or more judicial districts, such rules of practice as are necessary for the exercise of the jurisdiction of the division.

Special rules In the same manner, a majority of the judges of a division appointed for the district of Montréal or for the district of Québec may, at a meeting convened for that purpose by a senior associate chief judge or by means of a consultation held at his request by certified or registered mail, amend or replace such rules by special rules applicable in their respective district only.

Approval and coming into force “147. The rules of practice shall be submitted to the Government for approval and come into force fifteen days after the date of their publication in the Gazette officielle du Québec.

Register Immediately after such publication, the rules must be entered in the registers kept for that purpose by the clerks, and notice thereof must be posted in the office of the court in each of the districts where they apply.”

Court of
Québec

“In the case of the Court of Québec, the rules of practice are made and come into force in accordance with the provisions of the Courts of Justice Act (R.S.Q., chapter T-16).”

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

Judges of the Court of Québec

150. The judges of the Provincial Court, the Court of the Sessions of the Peace and the Youth Court hereby become judges of the Court of Québec. They shall continue to reside at the place where they were residing before 31 August 1988.

practice

The years during which a judge of the Court of Québec was a judge of the Provincial Court, the Court of the Sessions of the Peace or the Youth Court are deemed to be years during which he has been a judge of the Court of Québec.

Assignment

151. The judges of the Court of the Sessions of the Peace are hereby assigned to the Criminal and Penal Division of the Court of Québec; they shall not be assigned to another division of the Court unless they consent thereto and they shall be bound to exercise the jurisdiction of the Court only in criminal and penal matters.

Assignment The judges of the Youth Court are hereby assigned to the Youth Division of the Court of Québec; they shall not be assigned to another division of the Court unless they consent thereto and they shall be bound to exercise the jurisdiction of the Court only in youth matters.

Assignment The judges of the Provincial Court are hereby assigned to the Civil Division of the Court of Québec; they shall not be assigned to another division of the Court unless they consent thereto and they shall be bound to exercise the jurisdiction of the Court only in civil matters or, in the cases provided for by law, in administrative matters. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a judge of the Provincial Court who, while he was a member of that Court, exercised jurisdiction in criminal or penal matters or in youth matters may be bound to exercise such jurisdiction.

Assignment The judges of the Expropriation Division of the Provincial Court are hereby assigned to the Expropriation Division of the Court of Québec for the unexpired portion of their terms; they shall not be assigned to another division of the Court unless they consent thereto and they shall be bound to exercise the jurisdiction of the Expropriation Division and of the Court of Québec in civil matters only. On the expiry of their terms at the Expropriation Division, such judges shall be assigned to the Civil Division of the Court of Québec; they shall not be assigned to another division of the Court unless they consent thereto and they shall be bound to exercise the jurisdiction of the Court only in civil matters or, in the cases provided for by law, in administrative matters.

Selection procedures 152. The selection procedures in progress on 31 August 1988 pursuant to the Regulation respecting the procedure for the selection of persons apt for appointment as judges (R. R. Q., 1981, chapter T-16, r. 5) shall be continued. In this regard, a selection committee set up under the said regulation shall retain its jurisdiction, but only in respect of procedures in progress, and the list of candidates apt for appointment as judges of a court shall remain in force until the date of expiry prescribed in the regulation.

Exception Section 151 of this Act does not apply to a judge appointed pursuant to a selection procedure in progress on 31 August 1988.

Jurisdiction 153. Every judge of the Court of Québec has jurisdiction to exercise, in any proceeding brought under the Criminal Code or another

Act of the Parliament of Canada, all the powers conferred on a judge of the Court of the Sessions of the Peace, the Provincial Court or the Youth Court by or under that Code or such Act.

End of terms

154. The terms of office of the chief judges, senior associate chief judges, associate chief judges and coordinating judges of the Provincial Court, the Court of the Sessions of the Peace and the Youth Court shall end on 31 August 1988.

Additional annual remuneration

The following judges are, for the remaining period of their terms, entitled to an additional annual remuneration equal

(1) to 11% of their salary in the case of chief judges and senior associate chief judges;

(2) to 8% of their salary in the case of associate chief judges;

(3) to 5% of their salary in the case of coordinating judges.

Compensation

At the end of that period, the judges are entitled to receive, until their salary as judges of the Court of Québec is equal to the salary and additional remuneration paid to them at that time, the difference between the latter amount and their actual salary.

Reduction

However, if an additional remuneration is paid to any of such judges under section 115 of the Courts of Justice Act, the amounts paid under this section must be reduced accordingly.

Vested rights

155. The chairman and vice-chairman of the Expropriation Division of the Provincial Court retain their status and powers as well as their vested rights with respect to salary, additional remuneration, allowances and pension.

Vested rights

Any member of the Expropriation Division who has held the office of deputy chairman or deputy vice-chairman of the Expropriation Tribunal retains his vested rights with respect to additional remuneration.

Assessors

Full-time assessors assigned to the Expropriation Division hereby become assessors of the Expropriation Division of the Court of Québec.

Clerks and deputy clerks

156. Clerks and deputy clerks of the Provincial Court, the Court of the Sessions of the Peace and the Youth Court hereby become clerks and deputy clerks of the Court of Québec.

Exercise of powers

Until their notice of appointment is amended or revoked, clerks and deputy clerks are not authorized to exercise powers in addition to those they exercised in that capacity before 31 August 1988.

Personnel 157. The personnel assigned to the Provincial Court, the Court of the Sessions of the Peace and the Youth Court is hereby assigned to the Court of Québec.

Records and documents 158. The records and documents of the Provincial Court, the Court of the Sessions of the Peace and the Youth Court become the records and documents of the Court of Québec.

Documents 159. Any form or other document prepared for the Provincial Court, the Court of the Sessions of the Peace or the Youth Court may be used as if it were a document prepared for the Court of Québec.

Cases on trial 160. Cases being tried before the Provincial Court, the Court of the Sessions of the Peace and the Youth Court shall be continued before the corresponding division of the Court of Québec. Their order on the roll, if any, shall not be affected, and any case of which the hearing has begun shall be continued by the judge having cognizance of it.

Cases on trial Any case being tried before the Expropriation Division of the Provincial Court shall be continued by the assessor assigned to it.

Applicable provisions 161. Subject to section 66 of this Act and, from their coming into force, to the provisions of the Act to establish the Commission des relations du travail and to amend various legislative provisions (1987, chapter 85), the provisions of the third paragraph of section 86, the second paragraph of section 133 and paragraph 3 of section 134 of the Courts of Justice Act as well as the provisions of the said Act which concern the functions and term of office of chief judges, associate chief judges and coordinating judges continue to apply, adapted as required, to the Labour Court, as they read before being replaced by this Act.

Judge on leave of absence 162. A judge of the Court of Québec holding office on 31 August 1988, as a member of an agency established under any Act of the Parliament of Québec whose members are appointed by the Government is deemed to be on leave of absence without salary.

Salary The salary payable to him while he is holding such an office shall be at least equal to the salary that would be paid to him under the Courts of Justice Act for that same period, if he were not so on leave. Moreover, the judge's pension shall remain governed by the said Act and the time during which he holds such office shall be added to the time during which he has been a judge of the Court of Québec.

Members of the Conseil
de la magis-trature

163. The term of office of the members of the Conseil de la magistrature contemplated in paragraphs a, b and c of section 248 of the Courts of Justice Act as they read before being replaced by this Act shall end on 31 August 1988, except with respect to the inquiries concerning a complaint which are not completed.

Regulations
and orders

164. The regulations and orders made or adopted pursuant to a provision of the Courts of Justice Act that is repealed or replaced by this Act remain in force in so far as they are consistent with this Act. The same rule applies to any regulation made pursuant to section 34 of the Expropriation Act which has remained in force in accordance with section 64 of the Act respecting certain agencies responsible to the Minister of Justice (1986, chapter 61).

Rules of
practice

The rules of practice and any other rule made by the Provincial Court, the Court of the Sessions of the Peace or the Youth Court and the rules of procedure and rules of practice made by the Expropriation Division of the Provincial Court are deemed to have been made by the Court of Québec or any of its divisions, as the case may be.

Consolidated revenue
fund

165. The sums required for the administration of this Act during the fiscal year 1988-89 are, to the extent determined by the Government, taken out of the consolidated revenue fund.

Coming into force

166. The provisions of this Act will come into force on the date or dates to be fixed by the Government.

Coming into
force

However, sections 17 and 18 will come into force on 17 June 1988.
