Licence holder without lease

“86.2 Where a part of the Crown lands is contemplated in an outfitter’s licence although the licence holder does not hold a lease of exclusive hunting or fishing rights and where that part of the Crown lands is subsequently designated and delimited in accordance with section 85, the Minister shall

(1) revoke the licence if a lease of exclusive rights is granted to a person other than the licence holder;

(2) amend the licence if the designation of the Crown lands affects only part of the territory contemplated in the licence.

Applicable provisions

The provisions of this division in respect of the acquisition of buildings and structures situated on the territory identified in the lease apply, adapted as required.”

c. C-61.1,
s. 89, am.

8. Section 89 of the said Act is amended by replacing the words, “a regulation” in the first line by the words “an order”.

added

9. The said Act is amended by inserting, after section 101, the following section:

Use of designations

“101.1 No person may, to designate any immovable, enterprise or agency, use the expression “hunting outfitter”, “fishing outfitter”, or “hunting or fishing outfitting operations” or any other expression that includes those terms or any expression which may lead to the belief that an outfitter or a hunting or fishing outfitting operation is referred to, unless the person holds an outfitter’s licence issued under this Act or the Act respecting hunting and fishing rights in the James Bay and New Québec territories or is an agency comprised exclusively of the holders of such outfitter’s licences.”

c. C-61.1,
s. 106, am.

10. Section 106 of the said Act is amended by adding, at the end, the following paragraph:

Cancellation of memorandum of agreement

“Where a memorandum of agreement is cancelled, the Minister may continue to apply the by-laws passed by an agency that is a party to the memorandum of agreement in accordance with section 110.1 or, without any formality, amend or replace them. He may also use the fees collected from users to travel about the territory or to carry on any activity for purposes of management of the wildlife management area.”

c. C-61.1,
ss. 106.1
and 106.2,
added

11. The said Act is amended by inserting, after section 106, the following sections:

Devolution and use of fees

“106.1 The fees collected from users to travel about the territory or to carry on any activity by any agency that is a party to the memorandum of agreement shall devolve to the agency and be used for purposes of management of the wildlife management area.

Annual fees

“106.2 An agency that is a party to a memorandum of agreement must fix, with regard to an outfitter or another agency that is a party to a memorandum of agreement for the management of a wildlife management area, an annual sum as fees for persons who must travel through the territory of the wildlife management area to get to the territory of an outfitting operation or of another wildlife management area.

Maximum sum

The Government may, by regulation, establish the maximum sum that may be fixed as fees under this section.”

c. C-61.1,
s. 108, am.

12. Section 108 of the said Act is amended by replacing the second paragraph by the following paragraph:

Obligation

c. C-61.1,
s. 110, am.

13. Section 110 of the said Act is amended

(1) by replacing subparagraph 4 of the first paragraph by the following subparagraph:

“(4) determine the conditions governing the use of a vehicle or access by boat, motor-boat or aircraft for recreational purposes, or prohibit the use of or access by certain types thereof, or determine the conditions or procedures governing the authorization to use a vehicle or to have access by aircraft, boat or motor-boat, for recreational purposes, or any prohibition of such use or access; the conditions or procedures may vary according to the type of vehicle, aircraft or boat, the date or place they are used or the date or place where access thereby is authorized;”;

(2) by adding, after subparagraph 5 of the first paragraph, the following subparagraphs:

“(5.1) divide the territory into sectors for hunting, fishing or trapping purposes, or determine the conditions or procedures governing the division of a territory into such sectors, and establish the conditions or procedures governing the authorization or prohibition of any hunting or trapping activity according to the sector, the species of wildlife sought, the age or the sex of the animals, the means used to carry on an activity or the date on which an activity is carried on;

“(5.2) fix the maximum number of persons who may hunt, fish or trap in any sector of the territory or establish the mode of assigning persons to a sector or determine the conditions or procedures governing the fixing of the maximum number of persons who may hunt, fish or trap in a sector of the territory, or the establishment of the mode of assignment of persons to any sector;

“(5.3) determine the maximum and minimum amounts of fees exigible for membership by an agency that is a party to a memorandum of agreement;

“(5.4) determine, according to the categories of persons concerned or according to the time of year, conditions for the carrying, possession or transportation of hunting, fishing or trapping implements, or prohibit such implements;”;

(3) by replacing subparagraph 6 of the first paragraph by the following subparagraph:

“(6) permit any agency that is a party to a memorandum of agreement

(a) to determine the cases where the registration of persons is required;

(b) to establish, within the maximum amounts fixed by regulation of the Government, the amount of the fee exigible to travel about the territory or to carry on any activity;

(c) to determine the types of vehicles, boats or aircrafts the use of or access by which, for recreational purposes, is authorized or prohibited, or determine the types of engines permitted for boats or prohibit certain types thereof in accordance with the conditions or procedures prescribed by regulation of the Government;

(d) to divide the territory into sectors for hunting, fishing or trapping purposes and authorize or prohibit any hunting, fishing or trapping activity within the sectors, in accordance with the conditions or procedures prescribed by regulation of the Government;

(e) to fix the maximum number of persons who may hunt, fish or trap in the sectors it has determined, or to establish the mode of assignment of persons to any sector, in accordance with the conditions or procedures prescribed by regulation of the Government.”;

(4) by replacing the second paragraph by the following paragraph:

Fees

“The maximum amount of fees exigible that may be determined under this section may vary according to the category of persons concerned, the age of the persons, the activity carried on, the species of wildlife sought, the period of the stay, or the sector or date of the hunting, fishing or trapping activity.”

c. C-61.1,
ss. 110.1 to 110.5,
added

14. The said Act is amended by inserting, after section 110, the following sections:

Regulated
powers

“110.1 The powers which an agency that is a party to a memorandum of agreement may exercise in respect of the matters contemplated in subparagraph 6 of the first paragraph of section 110 and as regards the amount of the fees exigible for membership by the agency must be exercised pursuant to a by-law.

Approval

Any by-law other than a by-law under paragraph b of subparagraph 6 of the first paragraph of section 110 requires the approval of the general meeting of the members of the agency and is subject to the following rules:

(1) a notice of meeting must be sent to the Minister and to each member of the agency at least thirty days before the date of the general meeting;

(2) the by-law must accompany the notice of meeting;

(3) the general meeting must be held between 1 December and 1 May;

(4) the by-law must be approved, with or without amendment, by the votes of at least two-thirds of the members attending the meeting.

Coming into force

No by-law may come into force before the expiry of thirty days from the date on which it is sent to the Minister.

Copy to Minister

“110.2 A copy of the by-law contemplated in section 110.1 shall be sent to the Minister by registered or certified mail.

Amendment or replacement

The Minister may amend or replace the by-law if it does not comply with the conditions prescribed by regulation of the Government or if the rules provided for its adoption have not been complied with.

Transmission to agency

The Minister shall transmit the amended or replaced by-law to the agency that is a party to the memorandum of agreement by registered or certified mail; it comes into force on the date indicated on the notice of receipt or delivery.

Posting

“110.3 Any by-law of an agency that is a party to a memorandum of agreement respecting the matters provided for in subparagraph 6 of the first paragraph of section 110 must be posted up near the place where users register and a copy thereof shall be given on request to any user carrying on an activity in the wildlife management area.

Prohibited
activities

“110.4 No person may carry on any hunting, fishing or trapping activity in the territory of a wildlife management area elsewhere than at the place or in the sector recorded at the time of his registration.

vehicles

“110.5 No person may use a vehicle or a type of boat engine in, or gain access by boat or aircraft, to a wildlife management area contrary to the conditions or procedures determined by by-law of an agency that is a party to a memorandum of agreement.”
