CHAPTER 13

An Act respecting the Société du Parc des expositions agro-alimentaires

[Assented to 20 June 1985]

THE PARLIAMENT OF QUÉBEC ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

DIVISION I

ESTABLISHMENT AND ORGANIZATION

Establishment

1. A company called the “Société du Parc des expositions agro-alimentaires” is hereby established.

Status

2. The company is a corporation.

Mandatory
of the Government
Public domain

3. The company is a mandatory of the Government.

The property of the company forms part of the public domain but the performance of its obligations may be levied against its property.

Liability

The company binds only itself when it acts in its own name.

Corporate seat

4. The company has its corporate seat in the territory of the city of Montréal, at the place determined by the Government. Notice of the location or of any transfer of the corporate seat shall be published in the Gazette officielle du Québec.

Board of directors

5. The company is administered by a board of directors composed of seven members, including the president, appointed by the Government, although two of the members are designated by the city of Montréal.

Vice-president

6. The Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food shall appoint a vice-president from among the members of the board of directors.

In the unavoidable absence of the president, the vice-president shall perform his duties.

Term of office

7. The president is appointed for not over five years and the other members for not over three years.

Continuance in office

At the end of their terms, the members of the board of directors remain in office until they are replaced or reappointed.

Renewal

The terms of the president and of the other members may be renewed consecutively once only.

Vacancy

8. Any vacancy occurring during a term of office shall be filled in accordance with the mode of appointment prescribed in section 5.

Vacancy

Absence from a number of meetings of the board of directors determined by the rules of internal management of the company constitutes a vacancy in the cases and circumstances they indicate.

Duties of the president

9. The president shall preside over the meetings of the board of directors, direct its operations and carry out the other functions vested in him by by-law of the company.

Salary, allowances, indemnities

10. The Government shall fix, as the case may be, the salary, allowances, indemnities and other conditions of employment of the president and the vice-president of the board and of the other members of the board of directors.

Conflict of interest

11. In no case may the president, under pain of forfeiture of office, have any direct or indirect interest in any undertaking causing his personal interest to conflict with that of the company. However, forfeiture is not incurred if such an interest devolves to him by succession or gift, provided he renounces or disposes of it with dispatch.

Disclosure

Any member of the board of directors other than the president who has an interest in an undertaking described in the first paragraph shall, under pain of forfeiture of office, disclose it in writing to the president and abstain from participating in any deliberation or decision concerning the undertaking.

Quorum

12. Four members including the president or the vice-president are a quorum at sittings of the board of directors.

Tie-vote

In case of an equality of votes, the president or, if he is prevented from acting, the vice-president has a casting vote.

Decisions

13. A decision signed by all the members of the board of directors has the same force as if it had been taken at a regular sitting.

Director general	14. The Government shall appoint a director general and fix his remuneration, social benefits and other conditions of employment.
President	The president may simultaneously hold the office of director general.
Duties	15. The director general is responsible for the management of the company. He shall exercise his duties full time and may simultaneously hold the office of secretary.
Appointment and remuneration	16. The secretary and the other members of the personnel of the company are appointed and remunerated according to the standards, scales and staffing plan established by by-law of the company.
Social benefits	The by-law may also determine the social benefits and other conditions of employment of the secretary and the other members of the personnel and subject them to the requirements of the second paragraph of section 11.
Approval and coming into force	The by-law is subject to approval by the Government, and comes into force on the date of its publication in the Gazette officielle du Québec , or on any later date it indicates.
