Contenu de la conversation

1.	FI:	Good morning [inaudible] May I help you please?	00:00:50
2.	M [REDACTED]:	Heu, M. John [REDACTED] please.
3.	FI:	May I ask who's calling?
4.	M [REDACTED]:	Mr. Marc [REDACTED].
5.	FI:	Just a minute. Marc-- Marc?	00:01:00
6.	M [REDACTED]:	[REDACTED]
7.	FI:	Yeah. OK thanks. [pause - transfert d'appel]
8.	J [REDACTED]:	Yeah Marc.
9.	M [REDACTED]:	Euh Mr. [REDACTED] ?
10.	J [REDACTED]:	Yeah.
11.	M [REDACTED]:	Yeah, I called you two day ago, but I think we had a misunderstanding. Heu, I just want to make things clear after that I won't bother you, OK?
12.	J [REDACTED]:	Yeah.
13.	M [REDACTED]:	I'm a millwright, and when I call you, you tell me you were passing by, only by the Union. Euh, which Union are you passing by?
14.	J [REDACTED]:	Let me explain this to you.
15.	M [REDACTED]:	OK.
16.	J [REDACTED]:	I'm signed. I'm a millwright. I'm with Local 2309 in Toronto. We're International, across the States, across Canada.
17.	M [REDACTED]:	OK.
18.	J [REDACTED]:	The only people I can hire are the ones that are International. And that's 2182 in Montréal.
19.	M [REDACTED]:	OK.

20. J:	And that's the only Union I'm allowed to hire from. Anybody else, I'll be charged. I got no choice.
21. M:	What do you mean, you're gonna be charge?	00:02:00
22. J:	You want to talk to the Labour Board? Talk to the Labour Board.
23. M:	Sir calm down. I just.
24. J:	I know, but I made myself, I made myself clear about what I'm doing, and that's all I can do.
25. M:	But who's going to charge you? Claude [REDACTED]?
26. J:	No, nothing to do with Claude. The International. I'll be charged by the International.
27. M:	Why? Is it because.
28. J:	It doesn't matter why. I'm not explaining you, I'm just telling you.
29. M:	No no, it's just I want to explain you one thing.
30. J:	No I don't want to listen.
31. M:	In Quebec it's different, you have a law.
32. J:	Good Québec's different, good Québec's different. OK, please don't bother me again. Talk to, if you want to send somebody in, talk to Claude, [inaudible] that's fine.
33. M:	OK, so you, you're, you're making prejudice against all other Union.
34. J:	I'm not, I'm not making prejudice to anybody. I'm already working we're using one now, there's a hundred unions in Toronto, in Ontario, not 100 probably 30. I don't hire any Union except the one that I signed with, that's all.
35. M:	OK, I just want to explain you one case. I.
36. J:	I don't listen. I'm busy.
37. M:	Listen, sir.
38. J:	No I don't have to listen.
39. M:	Five minute and I won't bother you.
40. J:	No I don't want to listen to you. You're very bothering me for more than that.
41. M:	Yeah I know, but I want to prevent some real problem, you know, it's just for you. Hello?
42. J:	[Inaudible] you've got one minute.
43. M:	OK, in Quebec, I have an international company, and they were hiring other unions. 3 unions in fact. And he had no problem.	00:03:00
44. J:	Good.
45. M:	That's what I'm explaining to you. You cannot do that, because you're gonna have problem in Quebec in a way.
46. J:	Good. Is that you finished now?
47. M:	Oh you don't care?
48. J:	I'm very busy. What do you mean I don't care, I've got a job to look after [inaudible] in Toronto I'm looking after. I've already hired the union I'm using. If you got a problem, take it up with the Labour

	Board.
49. M:	Yeah, but the problem is, you're only using one union and you.
50. J:	[Inaudible] that's right, that's all I use in Toronto, that's all I use in hmm, in Vancouver.
51. M:	Oh ya, but Toronto it's not the same province, it's not my province.
52. J:	I've worked in Montréal sir before, I've worked in Montréal before and I've always used one union. You people.
53. M:	Yeah because there was only one available. Now we have two.
54. J:	I don't care if there's 5. I'm using one union, that's all I'm allowed to use. So goodbye please.
55. M:	OK, goodbye.	00:03:47
