Qu  bec Official Publisher
1995

EXPLANATORY NOTES

The purpose of this bill is to affirm the specific character of administrative justice, and to ensure the quality and promptness of administrative justice and its accessibility to citizens.

This bill establishes that the procedural rules leading to the making of an individual decision by a government department or body differ depending on whether the decision is made within the exercise of an administrative function or an adjudicative function, and sets out the rules that must be followed in each case.

The Administrative Tribunal of Québec is instituted by the bill, which determines its powers and defines the proceedings within its jurisdiction.

The provisions in the bill applicable to the members of the Administrative Tribunal of Québec pertain to their selection and appointment, term of office and renewal of term, remuneration and other conditions of office and premature termination of office.

The general duties and powers of the members of the Tribunal, particularly those concerning conflict of interest, incompatible activities and exclusivity of office are also dealt with in the bill.

The bill provides the rules applicable to the president and vice-presidents of the Tribunal as concerns their designation, renewal and premature termination of office.

The management and administration of the Tribunal is also provided for, particularly the administrative duties of the president and vice-presidents, the sittings of the Tribunal, its personnel and resources.

As for the Tribunal's adjudicative functions, the bill sets out basic rules of evidence and procedure that pertain to the exercise of the adjudicative function of the Tribunal and that govern introductive proceedings, the hearing, evidence, recusation of a member and the decision.

Lastly, the bill provides for the institution of the Conseil de la justice administrative and determines its composition, functions and powers, in particular as pertains to the ethical conduct of the members of the Tribunal, complaints lodged against members and inquiries the council may conduct in their regard.

Bill 130

An Act respecting administrative justice

THE PARLIAMENT OF QUÉBEC ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

1. The purpose of this Act is to affirm the specific character of administrative justice, and to ensure the quality and promptness of administrative justice and its accessibility to citizens.

The Act establishes the general rules of procedure applicable to individual decisions by government departments and bodies. Such rules of procedure differ according to whether a decision is made in the exercise of an administrative function or of an adjudicative function. Such rules shall be supplemented, where necessary, by special rules.

It also establishes the Administrative Tribunal of Québec and the Conseil de la justice administrative.

2. Individual decisions that are made by government departments or bodies pursuant to the norms or standards prescribed by law and that concern allowances, compensation or indemnities, authorizations, permits or licences, privileges or benefits are made in the exercise of an administrative function.

Decisions of administrative bodies specially empowered to act as third persons charged with making determinations in respect of proceedings brought by citizens against decisions of the Administration are made in the exercise of an adjudicative function.

3. For the purposes of this Act, every body whose members are in the majority appointed by the Government or by a Minister and whose personnel is appointed and remunerated pursuant to the Public Service Act (R.S.Q., chapter F-3.1.1) is a government body.

TITLE I

RULES GOVERNING INDIVIDUAL DECISIONS OF GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS AND BODIES

CHAPTER I

RULES SPECIFIC TO ADMINISTRATIVE DECISIONS

4. The procedures leading to an individual administrative decision described in the first paragraph of section 2 shall be carried out in keeping with the duty to act fairly.

5. Every government department or body is thus required, to the extent possible, to ensure

(1) that such procedures comply with the statutory and administrative norms or standards governing them;

(2) that the procedures are carried out informally, according to simple and flexible rules;

(3) that the agents of the government department or body carry out the procedures respectfully, prudently and promptly and in accordance with the requirements of good faith;

(4) that the person concerned was given the opportunity to provide any information useful for the making of the decision and, where applicable, to complete his file;

(5) that all decisions are made with dispatch.

6. An administrative authority may not make an unfavourable decision to the person concerned without first having

(1) informed him of its intentions and the reasons therefor;

(2) informed him of any complaints and objections that concern him; and

(3) given him the opportunity to present his observations, and in particular to produce documents to complete his file.

7. Every decision must be communicated to the person concerned in clear and concise terms. The administrative authority must furnish the person with the information required to enable him to communicate with it so as to be provided with an explanation of the substance and scope of the decision.

An unfavourable decision must also give the reasons therefor and indicate any non-judicial proceeding available under the law and the time limit for bringing such a proceeding.

CHAPTER II

RULES SPECIFIC TO ADJUDICATIVE DECISIONS

8. The procedures leading to an individual adjudicative decision described in the second paragraph of section 2 shall, so as to allow for fair argument, be carried out in public and in keeping with the duty to act impartially.

A proceeding may, however, in the interests of morality or public order, be ordered to be held in camera.

9. The body must give the parties the opportunity to be heard.

10. The body has, within the scope of the law, full authority over the conduct of the hearing. It shall, in directing the proceedings, be flexible and ensure that the substantive law is rendered effective and is carried out.

It is not required to adhere to the ordinary rules of evidence applicable in civil matters.

It shall, however, even of its own initiative, reject any evidence which was obtained under such circumstances that fundamental rights and freedoms are breached and the use of which could bring the administration of justice into disrepute. The use of evidence obtained through violation of the right of professional secrecy is deemed to bring the administration of justice into disrepute.

11. In the exercise of its adjudicative function, the body must

(1) take measures to delimit the scope of the proceedings and, where appropriate, to promote reconciliation between the parties;

(2) give the parties the opportunity to prove the facts in support of their allegations and to argue;

(3) provide, if necessary, fair and impartial assistance to each party during the hearing;

(4) allow each party to be assisted or represented by persons authorized by law to that effect.

12. Every decision made by the body must be communicated to the parties and to the other persons indicated by law in clear and concise terms.

Every decision terminating a matter, even if made known orally to the parties, shall be set out in writing and give the reasons therefor.

TITLE II

42. In the social affairs division, at least ten members shall be physicians, including at least four psychiatrists, and at least two other members shall be professional social workers.

DIVISION II

RECRUITING AND SELECTION OF MEMBERS

43. Only a person who has the qualifications required by law and at least ten years' experience pertinent to the exercise of the functions of the Tribunal may be a member of the Tribunal.

44. Members shall be selected among persons declared apt according to the recruiting and selection procedure established by government regulation. The regulation may, in particular,

(1) determine the publicity that must be given to the recruiting procedure and the content of such publicity;

(2) determine the procedure by which a person may become a candidate;

(3) authorize the establishment of selection committees to assess the aptitude of candidates and formulate an opinion concerning them;

(4) fix the composition of the committees and mode of appointment of committee members, ensuring, where appropriate, adequate representation of the sectors concerned;

(5) determine the selection criteria to be taken into account by the committees;

(6) determine the information a committee may require from a candidate and the consultations it may hold.

45. The names of the persons declared apt shall be recorded in a register kept at the Ministère du Conseil exécutif.

46. A declaration of aptitude shall be valid for a period of 18 months or for such period as is determined by regulation.

47. Members of a selection committee shall receive no remuneration except in such cases, subject to such conditions and to such extent as may be determined by the Government.

They are, however, entitled to the reimbursement of expenses incurred in the performance of their duties, subject to the conditions and to the extent determined by the Government.

DIVISION III

TERM OF OFFICE AND RENEWAL

48. The term of office of a member is five years, subject to the exceptions that follow.

49. The Government may determine a shorter fixed term of office in the instrument of appointment where the candidate so requests for a valid reason or where special circumstances stated in the instrument of appointment so require.

50. The term of office of a supernumerary member shall either be determined in the instrument of appointment and not exceed one year, or be determinable by reference to a special mandate specified in the instrument of appointment.

51. The term of office of a member other than a supernumerary member shall be renewed for five years

(1) unless the member is notified otherwise at least three months before the expiry of his term by the agent authorized therefor by the Government; or

(2) unless the member requests otherwise and so notifies the Minister at least three months before the expiry of his term.

A variation of the term of office is valid only for a fixed period of less than five years determined in the instrument of renewal and, except where requested by the member for a valid reason, only where required by special circumstances stated in the instrument of renewal.

A term of office may be renewed only twice.

52. The renewal of a term of office shall be examined according to the procedure established by government regulation. The regulation may, in particular,

(1) authorize the establishment of committees;

54. To resign, a member must give the Minister reasonable notice in writing, sending a copy to the president of the Tribunal.

55. The Government may dismiss a member if the Conseil de la justice administrative so recommends, after an inquiry conducted following the lodging of a complaint pursuant to section 170.

56. The Government may also terminate the term of office of a member for either of the following reasons:

(1) loss of a qualification required by this Act for holding the office of member;

(2) permanent disability which, in the opinion of the Government, prevents the member from performing the duties of his office satisfactorily; permanent disability is ascertained by the Conseil de la justice administrative, after an inquiry conducted at the Minister's request.

DIVISION V

OTHER PROVISIONS REGARDING TERMINATION OF DUTIES

57. Any member may, with the authorization of and for the time determined by the president of the Tribunal, continue to perform his duties after the expiry of his term of office in order to conclude the cases he has begun to hear but has yet to determine; he shall be considered to be a supernumerary member for the time required.

The first paragraph does not apply to a member who has been dismissed or otherwise removed from office.

DIVISION VI

REMUNERATION AND OTHER CONDITIONS OF OFFICE

58. The Government shall make regulations determining

(1) the mode of remuneration of the members and the applicable standards and scales;

(2) the conditions subject to which and the extent to which a member may be reimbursed the expenses incurred in the performance of his duties.

The Government may make regulations determining other conditions of office applicable to all or certain members, including social benefits other than the pension plan.

The regulatory provisions may vary according to whether they apply to full-time or part-time members, to regular or supernumerary members, or to a member charged with an administrative office within the Tribunal.

The regulations come into force on the fifteenth day following the date of their publication in the Gazette officielle du Québec or on any later date indicated therein.

59. The Government shall fix, in accordance with the regulations, the remuneration, social benefits and other conditions of office of the members.

60. Once fixed, a member's remuneration may not be reduced.

However, additional remuneration attaching to an administrative office within the Tribunal shall cease upon termination of such office.

61. The remuneration of a member who has held the office of president or vice-president of the Tribunal for a period of at least five years shall be equal to the remuneration he was receiving upon the termination of such office until such time as the remuneration otherwise applicable to him reaches that amount.

62. The pension plan of full-time members shall be determined pursuant to the Act respecting the Government and Public Employees Retirement Plan (R.S.Q., chapter R-10) or the Act respecting the Civil Service Superannuation Plan (R.S.Q., chapter R-12), as the case may be.

63. A public servant appointed as a member of the Tribunal ceases to be subject to the Public Service Act (R.S.Q., chapter F-3.1.1) for all matters concerning such office; for the duration of his term of office, he is on full leave without pay for the purpose of performing his duties of office.

DIVISION VII

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE

64. The Government shall designate, among the members of the Tribunal who are advocates or notaries, a president and vice-presidents in the number it determines.

The instrument of appointment of a vice-president shall determine the divisions under his responsibility.

65. The president and the vice-presidents shall exercise their duties on a full-time basis.

66. The Minister shall designate a vice-president to replace the president or another vice-president temporarily when required.

If the vice-president so designated is himself absent or unable to act, the Minister shall designate another vice-president as a replacement.

67. The administrative office of the president or a vice-president is of a fixed duration determined in the instrument of appointment or renewal.

68. The administrative office of the president or a vice-president may terminate prematurely only on his relinquishing such office, on the premature termination or non-renewal of his term of office as a member of the Tribunal, or on his removal or dismissal from his administrative office in the circumstances referred to in this division.

69. The Government may remove the president or a vice-president from his administrative office if the Conseil de la justice administrative so recommends, after an inquiry conducted at the Minister's request concerning a lapse pertaining only to his administrative duties.

70. The Government may also dismiss the president or a vice-president from his administrative office for loss of a qualification required by law for the exercise of such office.

CHAPTER IV

DUTIES AND POWERS OF MEMBERS

71. Before taking office, every member shall take an oath, solemnly affirming the following: " I (...) swear that I will exercise the powers and fulfill the duties of my office impartially and honestly and to the best of my knowledge and abilities."

The oath shall be taken before the president of the Tribunal. The president of the Tribunal shall take the oath before a judge of the Court of Québec.

The writing evidencing the oath shall be sent to the Minister.

72. A member may not, on pain of forfeiture of office, have a direct or indirect interest in any enterprise that could cause a conflict between his personal interest and his duties of office, unless the interest devolves to him by succession or gift and he renounces it or disposes of it with dispatch.

73. In addition to observing conflict of interest requirements and the rules of conduct and duties imposed by the code of ethics adopted under this Act, a member may not pursue an activity or place himself in a situation incompatible, within the meaning of the code of ethics, with the exercise of his office.

74. Full-time members shall devote themselves exclusively to their office, save the exceptions that follow.

75. A member may carry out any mandate entrusted to him by order of the Government after consultation with the president of the Tribunal.

76. A member may, with the written consent of the president of the Tribunal, engage in teaching activities and receive remuneration therefor.

77. The Tribunal and its members are vested with the powers and immunity of commissioners appointed under the Act respecting public inquiry commissions (R.S.Q., chapter C-37), except the power to order imprisonment.

They are also vested with all the powers necessary for the performance of their duties; they may, in particular, make any order they consider appropriate to safeguard the rights of the parties.

No judicial proceedings may be brought against them by reason of an act done in good faith in the performance of their duties.

CHAPTER V

OPERATION

DIVISION I

MANAGEMENT AND ADMINISTRATION OF THE TRIBUNAL

78. In addition to the powers and duties that may otherwise be assigned to him, the president is charged with the administration and general management of the Tribunal.

The duties of the president include

(3) seeing to the observance of standards of ethical conduct.

79. The president shall establish a code of ethics applicable to the assessors of the employment injuries division and shall see that it is observed.

The code of ethics comes into force on the fifteenth day following the date of its publication in the Gazette officielle du Québec or on any later date indicated therein.

80. To expedite the business of the Tribunal, the president may, after consultation with the vice-presidents responsible for the divisions concerned, assign a member temporarily to another division.

81. Each year, the president shall present a plan to the Minister in which he shall state his management objectives aimed at ensuring ready access to the Tribunal and the quality and promptness of its decision-making process and give an account of the results achieved in the preceding year.

The president shall include in the plan, in addition to the information requested by the Minister, the following information, compiled by the Tribunal on a monthly basis in respect of each division:

- (1) the number of days on which hearings were held and the average number of hours devoted to them;
- (2) the number of postponements granted;

82. The president may delegate all or part of his powers and duties to the vice-presidents.

83. The vice-presidents shall assist and advise the president in the performance of his duties and perform their administrative duties under the president's authority.

84. In addition to the powers and duties that may otherwise be assigned to him or delegated to him by the president, the duties of a vice-president include

- (2) participating in the temporary assignment of a member to another division.

SITTINGS

85. The president, the vice-president responsible for the division or any member designated by either shall determine which members are to take part in each sitting.

86. The sittings shall be presided by the president, the vice-president responsible for the division or a member designated by either among the full-time members.

87. The Tribunal may sit at any place in Québec. If the Tribunal holds a hearing in a locality where a court sits, the clerk of the court shall allow the Tribunal to use premises used by the court unless they are being used for sittings of the court.

88. In real estate assessment matters, the Tribunal shall sit in the territory of the local municipality whose roll is involved.

If the matter relates to a unit of assessment or place of business whose real estate value or rental value entered on the roll is equal to or greater than the value fixed by regulation of the Government, the president of the Tribunal, in cooperation with the vice-president responsible for the real estate assessment division, may group the territories of several local municipalities within a radius of 100 kilometres, and designate the municipal territory in which the Tribunal shall sit.

With the consent of the applicant, the Tribunal may sit outside the territory of the local municipality or the limits determined.

DIVISION III

PERSONNEL AND PHYSICAL AND FINANCIAL RESOURCES

89. The secretary of the Tribunal, the assessors of the employment injuries division and the other members of the personnel of the Tribunal shall be appointed and remunerated in accordance with the Public Service Act.

No judicial proceedings may be brought against them for any act done in good faith in the performance of their duties.

90. The secretary shall have custody of the records of the Tribunal.

91. The documents emanating from the Tribunal are authentic if they are signed, as are copies of such documents if they are certified true, by a member of the Tribunal or by the secretary.

92. Notwithstanding section 9 of the Act respecting Access to documents held by public bodies and the Protection of personal information (R.S.Q., chapter A-2.1), only a person authorized by the Tribunal may have access, for good reason, to the records of the social affairs division. This restriction does not apply to the records relating to the proceedings listed in paragraphs 1, 5, 6, 11 and 13 of Part 3 of Schedule I.

93. The Tribunal shall establish a bank of jurisprudence and shall, in cooperation with the Société québécoise d'information juridique, ensure public access to all or part of the decisions made by the Tribunal.

The Tribunal shall omit the names of the persons concerned by decisions of the social affairs division and the names of the persons concerned by decisions of the employment injuries division, where the Tribunal is of the opinion that the decisions contain information of a confidential nature the disclosure of which could be prejudicial to the persons concerned.

94. Once proceedings have been completed, the parties shall take back the exhibits they produced and the documents they filed.

Except as regards the decisions made by the Tribunal, the exhibits or documents contained in the records of proceedings that have been completed, including the exhibits or documents not claimed by the parties, may be destroyed after the expiry of one year from the date of the final decision of the Tribunal or of the proceeding terminating the proceedings, unless the president decides otherwise.

95. The Government may, by regulation, determine a tariff of the administrative fees, professional fees, costs and other charges attached to proceedings before the real estate assessment division, the territory and environment division and the economic affairs division of the Tribunal as well as the classes of persons which may be exempted therefrom.

96. The financial year of the Tribunal shall end on 31 March.

It is exempted from that requirement in regard to a party to grant an uncontested application.

In addition, if a party who has been summoned does not appear at the time fixed for the hearing without having provided a valid excuse for his absence, or appears at the hearing but refuses to be heard, the Tribunal may nonetheless proceed with the hearing and make a decision.

104. The parties to a proceeding are, in addition to the person and administrative authority directly interested therein, any person so designated by law.

105. The parties may be represented by the person of their choice before the compensation subdivision and the employment injuries division.

The Minister of Income Security or a body which is his delegatee for the purposes of the Act respecting income security may be represented by the person of his or its choice before the income security and social aid and allowances subdivision.

The applicant may, before the immigration subdivision, be represented by a relative or by a non-profit organization devoted to the defense or interests of immigrants, if he is unable to be present himself by reason of absence from Québec. In the latter case, the mandatary must provide the Tribunal with a mandate in writing, signed by the person represented, indicating the gratuitous nature of the mandate.

106. Where the Tribunal is seized of a matter pursuant to section 30 of the Mental Patients Protection Act (R.S.Q., chapter P-41), it shall ascertain that the applicant has been given an opportunity to retain the services of an advocate.

107. The members of the personnel of the Tribunal shall assist any person who so requests in drafting a motion, an intervention or any other written proceeding directed to the Tribunal.

108. The Tribunal may accept a written proceeding despite a defect of form or an irregularity.

109. The Tribunal may relieve a party from his failure to comply with a time limit prescribed by law if the party establishes that he was unable to act sooner and if the Tribunal considers that no other party suffers serious harm therefrom.

110. A proceeding before the Tribunal does not suspend the execution of the contested decision unless a provision of law provides otherwise or, upon a motion heard and judged by preference, a member of the Tribunal orders otherwise by reason of urgency or of the risk of serious and irreparable harm.

111. In the absence of provisions applicable to a particular case, the Tribunal may remedy the inadequacy by any procedure consistent with law or with its rules of procedure.

112. The Tribunal may, by a regulation adopted by a majority vote of its members, make rules of procedure specifying the manner in which the rules established in this chapter are to be applied.

Such rules of procedure may differ according to the divisions or subdivisions to which they apply.

The regulation is made after consultation with the Conseil de la justice administrative and upon approval by the Government.

DIVISION III

INTRODUCTORY AND PRELIMINARY PROCEDURE

113. A proceeding is brought before the Tribunal by a motion filed at the secretariat of the Tribunal within 45 days after notification to the applicant of the contested decision, unless the Act authorizing the proceeding prescribes a different procedure or time limit.

The motion may also be filed in any office of the Court of Québec, in which case the clerk shall transmit the motion forthwith to the secretary of the Tribunal.

114. The motion shall state the decision in respect of which the proceeding is brought or the facts giving rise thereto, and shall contain a short statement of the grounds invoked in support of the proceeding and set out the conclusions sought.

It shall contain any other information required by the rules of procedure of the Tribunal, and shall, where applicable, state the name of the representative of the applicant.

115. Upon receipt of the motion, the secretary of the Tribunal shall send a copy of it to the party against whom the proceeding is brought and to the persons indicated by law.

116. The administrative authority whose decision is contested must, within 30 days of receipt of a copy of the motion, send a copy of the record relating to the matter to the secretary of the Tribunal and to the applicant.

A local municipality whose assessment roll is contested must comply with that rule.

117. The Tribunal may, upon a motion, dismiss a proceeding it deems improper or dilatory or subject a proceeding to certain conditions.

118. Where, on examining the motion or the contested decision, the Tribunal ascertains that the administrative authority concerned failed to rule upon certain questions although it was required to do so by law, the Tribunal may, if the date of the hearing has not been fixed, suspend the case for the time it fixes and require that the administrative authority act within that time.

If, at the expiry of the allotted time, the proceeding before the Tribunal is maintained, the Tribunal shall hear the proceeding as though it were a proceeding in respect of the original decision.

119. Where, during a proceeding before the pension plan subdivision, a question is raised respecting Title III of the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan (R.S.Q., chapter R-9), the Tribunal must, subject to the exceptions contemplated in section 76 of the said Act, order the referral of the matter to the Court of Québec for a ruling on the question raised. In such case, the secretary of the Tribunal shall give notice thereof to the Minister of Revenue without delay.

Where the ruling of the court does not put an end to the dispute, the matter is referred back to the Tribunal.

120. Cases in which the subject-matter in dispute is substantially the same or which could suitably be combined, whether or not the same parties are involved, may be joined by order of the president of the Tribunal or of the vice-president responsible for the division concerned, on the conditions he fixes.

An order made under the first paragraph may be revoked by the Tribunal upon hearing the matter if it is of the opinion that the interests of justice will be better served by doing so.

121. The following proceedings shall be heard and decided by preference:

(1) a proceeding under section 359 of the Act respecting industrial accidents and occupational diseases (R.S.Q., chapter A-3.001) which pertains to the reduction or suspension of an indemnity under subparagraph e of paragraph 2 of section 142 of the said Act;

(2) a proceeding under section 4.8 of the Health Insurance Act (R.S.Q., chapter A-29) which pertains to the withdrawal of recognition by the Minister from a manufacturer or from a wholesaler of medications;

(3) a proceeding under section 53.13 of the Expropriation Act (R.S.Q., chapter E-24) which pertains to a provisional indemnity;

(4) a proceeding under section 41 of the Public Health Protection Act (R.S.Q., chapter P-35) which pertains to the suspension, revocation or non-renewal of an ambulance service permit;

(5) a proceeding under section 21.0.4 of the Act to preserve agricultural land (R.S.Q., chapter P-41.1) which pertains to an order of the Commission de protection du territoire agricole du Québec;

(6) a proceeding under section 37.3 of the Act respecting occupational health and safety (R.S.Q., chapter S-2.1) which pertains to the re-assignment of a worker to other duties;

(7) a proceeding under section 193 of the said Act which pertains to the complete or partial closing of a workplace or of the exercise of the right of refusal;

(8) a proceeding under section 453 of the Act respecting health services and social services (R.S.Q., chapter S-4.2) or under section 182.1 of the Act respecting health services and social services for Cree Native persons (R.S.Q., chapter S-5) which pertains to the decision to evacuate and relocate any persons lodged in a facility where activities are carried on without a permit.

DIVISION IV

PRE-HEARING CONFERENCE

122. The president of the Tribunal, the vice-president responsible for the division concerned or the member designated by either of them may call the parties to a pre-hearing conference if he considers it useful and the circumstances of the case allow it.

123. The purpose of the pre-hearing conference is

- (1) to define the questions to be dealt with at the hearing;
- (2) to assess the advisability of amending the written proceedings so as to make them clearer and more detailed;
- (3) to ensure that all documentary evidence is exchanged by the parties;
- (4) to plan the conduct of the proceedings and proof at the hearing;
- (5) to examine the possibility for the parties of admitting certain facts or of proving them by means of sworn statements;
- (6) to examine any other question likely to simplify or accelerate the conduct of the hearing.

124. Minutes of the pre-hearing conference shall be drawn up and signed by the parties and by the member who called the parties to the conference.

Agreements and decisions recorded in the minutes shall, as far as they may apply, govern the conduct of the proceeding, unless the Tribunal, when hearing the matter, permits a derogation therefrom to prevent an injustice.

DIVISION V

HEARING

125. The Tribunal shall, so far as is possible, facilitate the holding of a hearing at a date and time when the parties and their witnesses, if any, are able to attend without unduly disrupting their usual occupations.

126. Notice shall be sent to the parties within reasonable time before the hearing or within the time fixed by law, stating

- (1) the purpose, date, time and place of the hearing;

(2) that the parties have the right to be assisted or represented, and listing the classes of persons authorized by law to assist or represent a party before the Tribunal;

(3) that the Tribunal has the authority to proceed, without further delay or notice, despite the failure of a party to appear at the time and place fixed if no valid excuse is provided;

(4) that the Tribunal has the authority to make an order for a hearing to be held in camera, or an order banning or restricting disclosure, publication or dissemination of information or documents.

127. The Tribunal may, of its own initiative or on an application by a party, ban or restrict the disclosure, publication or dissemination of any information or documents it indicates, in the interests of morality or public order or where the confidential nature of the information or documents or the public interest requires the prohibition or restriction to ensure the proper administration of justice.

128. Any party may examine and cross-examine witnesses to the extent necessary to ensure fair proceedings.

129. A witness may not refuse, without valid reason, to answer a question legally put to him by the Tribunal or by the parties.

However, no witness may be compelled to answer in the cases and conditions described in articles 307 and 308 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

130. The Tribunal may adjourn a sitting, on the conditions it determines, if it is of the opinion that the adjournment will not cause unreasonable delay in the proceeding or a denial of justice, in particular, for the purpose of fostering an amicable settlement.

131. Where a member is unable to continue a hearing, another member designated by the president of the Tribunal or by the vice-president responsible for the division concerned may, with the consent of the parties, continue the hearing and, in the case of oral evidence already produced, rely on the notes and minutes of the hearing or on the stenographer's notes or the recording of the hearing, if any.

The same rule also applies in the case of a hearing continued after a member who began to hear the matter ceases to hold office.

DIVISION VI

EVIDENCE

132. Each party may plead any ground of law or fact relevant to the determination of his rights and obligations.

133. The Tribunal may make the admission of evidence subject to rules on prior communication.

134. The Tribunal may refuse to admit any evidence that is not relevant or that is not of a nature likely to further the interests of justice.

135. In addition to facts so well-known as to not reasonably be questionable, the Tribunal must take judicial notice of the law in force in Québec in the fields within its jurisdiction. Unless the law provides otherwise, statutory instruments not published in the Gazette officielle du Québec or in any other manner provided for by law must be pleaded.

136. A member may, of his own initiative, raise generally-known facts, opinions and information which fall within his specialization or that of the division to which he is assigned.

137. No evidence may be relied on by the Tribunal in making its decision unless the parties have been given an opportunity to comment on the substance of the evidence or to refute it.

Other than in the case of facts of which judicial notice must be taken pursuant to section 135, the Tribunal may not base its decision on grounds of law or fact raised of a member's own initiative if it has not first given the parties, other than parties who have waived their right to state their allegations, an opportunity to present their observations.

DIVISION VII

RECUSATION OF A MEMBER

138. A member who has knowledge of a valid cause for his recusation must declare that cause in a writing filed in the record and must advise the parties of it.

139. A party may, at any time before the decision and provided he acts with dispatch, apply for the recusation of a member seized of the case if he has good reason to believe that a cause for recusation exists.

The application for recusation shall be addressed to the president of the Tribunal. Unless the member removes himself from the case, the application shall be decided by the president, by the vice-president responsible for the division concerned or by a member designated by either of them.

DIVISION VIII

DECISIONS

140. Where a matter is heard by more than one member, it shall be decided by the majority of the members having heard it. If any member dissents, the grounds for his dissent must be recorded in the decision.

When opinions are equally divided on a question, it shall be referred to the vice-president responsible for the division concerned who shall decide according to law.

141. In any matter of whatever nature, the decision must be given within four months after being taken under advisement, unless, for a valid reason, the president of the Tribunal grants an extension.

Where a member seized of a case fails to give a decision within four months or, as the case may be, within such additional time as is granted, the president may, of his own initiative or on an application by a party, withdraw the matter from the member.

Before granting an extension or withdrawing a matter from the member who failed to decide within the time prescribed, the president shall take account of the circumstances and of the interests of the parties.

142. A matter that has been withdrawn from a member shall be decided by the other members having heard the matter if their number is sufficient to constitute a quorum. Failing a quorum, the matter shall be heard again.

143. A matter heard by a member and which has not been decided at the time the member ceases to hold office is governed by the rules set forth in section 142.

144. A vice-president or any member called upon to hear a matter pursuant to the second paragraph of section 140 or to section 142 or 143 may, as regards oral testimony, and with the consent of the parties, rely on the notes and minutes of the hearing or on the stenographer's notes or the recording of the hearing, if any. If the vice-president or member finds them insufficient, he may recall a witness or request any other evidence.

145. Where a member is unable to act or has ceased to hold office and cannot sign the minute of a decision given at the hearing, another member designated by the president of the Tribunal or by the vice-president responsible for the division concerned may sign the minute of the decision.

146. Any order by the Tribunal for a hearing to be held in camera or banning or restricting disclosure, publication or dissemination of documents or information shall be stated expressly in the decision.

147. A copy of the decision shall be sent to each of the parties and to any other person specified by law.

148. A decision containing an error in writing or in calculation or any other clerical error may be corrected, in the record and without further formality, by the member who made the decision.

Where a member is unable to act or has ceased to hold office, another member designated by the president of the Tribunal or by the vice-president responsible for the division concerned may, on an application by a party, correct the decision.

149. The Tribunal, of its own initiative or on an application by a party, may review or revoke any decision it has made

(1) where a new fact is discovered which, had it been known in time, could have warranted a different decision;

(2) where a party, owing to reasons considered sufficient, could not be heard;

(3) where a substantive or procedural defect is of a nature likely to invalidate the decision.

In the case described in subparagraph 3, the decision may not be reviewed or revoked by the members having made the decision.

150. The review or revocation procedure must be undertaken within reasonable time following the challenged decision or following the discovery of a new fact susceptible of warranting a different decision.

The Tribunal shall proceed on the basis of the record; it may, however, if it considers it appropriate or if a party requests it, hear the parties.

151. Decisions of the Tribunal are executory according to the terms and conditions stated therein provided the parties have received a copy of the decision or have otherwise been advised of it.

Compulsory execution of decisions is effected, by deposit, in accordance with the prescriptions of the Code of Civil Procedure.

152. Any person who contravenes a decision or an order which is executory is in contempt of the Tribunal.

153. Except on a question of jurisdiction, none of the recourses provided in articles 33 and 834 to 846 of the Code of Civil Procedure may be exercised and no injunction may be granted against the Tribunal or against any of its members acting in their official capacity.

A judge of the Court of Appeal may, upon a motion, annul by a summary proceeding any judgment rendered or order or injunction pronounced contrary to this section.

TITLE III

CONSEIL DE LA JUSTICE ADMINISTRATIVE

CHAPTER I

INSTITUTION AND ORGANIZATION

154. A council bearing the name "Conseil de la justice administrative" is hereby instituted.

155. The council shall have its seat in the territory of the Communauté urbaine de Québec. Notice of the address of the seat shall be published in the Gazette officielle du Québec.

156. The council shall be composed of the following members:

(1) the president of the Tribunal who shall be the chairman of the council;

(2) a member chosen from among the vice-presidents of the Tribunal;

(3) two members chosen from among the members of the Tribunal, other than the vice-presidents, after consultation with all the members;

(4) five other members who are not members of the Tribunal, two of whom shall be advocates or notaries chosen after consultation with their professional order.

157. The members referred to in paragraphs 2, 3 and 4 of section 156 shall be appointed by the Government.

The term of office of the members is three years and may be renewed only once.

At the end of his term, each member may continue to perform his duties to conclude the cases he has begun to hear but has yet to determine.

158. Any vacancy which occurs during a term of office shall be filled according to the rules of composition and for the term set out in sections 156 and 157.

159. Before they may sit on the council, each member shall have taken an oath, solemnly affirming the following: "I (...) swear that I will neither reveal nor disclose, without being authorized to do so by law, anything of which I may gain knowledge in the performance of the duties of my office and that I will perform those duties impartially and honestly to the best of my knowledge and abilities."

The oath shall be taken before the chairman of the council. The chairman shall take the oath before a judge of the Court of Québec.

160. The members of the council receive no remuneration, except in the cases, on the conditions and to the extent that may be determined by the Government.

The members are, however, entitled to the reimbursement of expenses incurred in the performance of their duties, on the conditions and to the extent determined by the Government.

161. The secretary of the Tribunal shall act as secretary of the council.

162. The council shall meet as often as necessary, at the request of the chairman, of a majority of the members or of the Minister.

The council may sit in camera and hold its sittings at any place in Québec.

163. The minutes of the sittings of the council or of any of its committees are authentic if they are approved by the members and are signed by the chairman of the sitting or by the secretary.

Similarly, documents emanating from the council or forming part of its records are authentic if they are signed, as are copies of such documents if they are certified true, by the chairman of the council or by the secretary.

164. The council may make rules for its internal management, form committees and determine their powers and duties.

165. The council shall provide the Minister with any report or information he requires on its activities.

CHAPTER II

FUNCTIONS AND POWERS

166. The functions of the council in respect of the Administrative Tribunal of Québec and its members are

(1) to foster the effectiveness of the rules made by the Tribunal for the application of procedure and foster the harmonization of the rules applicable before each division, and give its advice on draft regulations submitted to it;

(2) to establish a code of ethics applicable to the members of the Tribunal;

(3) to promote professional development of the members in relation to the performance of their duties;

(4) to receive and examine any complaint lodged against a member pursuant to Chapter IV;

(5) to inquire, at the request of the Minister, into whether a member is suffering from a permanent disability;

(6) to inquire, at the request of the Minister, into any lapse raised as grounds for removal of the president or a vice-president of the Tribunal from his administrative office in the case provided for in section 69;

(7) to report to the Minister on any matter he may submit to the council and to make recommendations to the Minister on the administration of administrative justice and on the effective use of human, physical and financial resources.

167. The council may, by by-law, make rules of evidence and procedure applicable to the conduct of its inquiries. The by-law shall be submitted to the Government for approval.

CHAPTER III

ETHICS

168. The council, after consultation with the members of the Tribunal, shall make a regulation establishing a code of ethics applicable to them.

The code of ethics shall be submitted to the Government for approval.

169. The code of ethics shall set out the rules of conduct and the duties of the members of the Tribunal towards the public, the parties, their witnesses and the persons who represent them. It shall indicate, in particular, conduct that is derogatory to the honour, dignity or integrity of the members. In addition, the code of ethics may determine activities or situations that are incompatible with their office, their obligations concerning disclosure of interest, and the duties they may perform gratuitously.

The code of ethics may provide special rules applicable to part-time members.

CHAPTER IV

COMPLAINTS

170. Any person may lodge a complaint with the council against a member of the Tribunal for breach of the code of ethics, of a duty under this Act or of the prescriptions governing conflicts of interest and incompatible functions.

171. A complaint must be in writing and must briefly state the reasons on which it is based.

It shall be transmitted to the seat of the council.

172. If the complaint is lodged by a member of the council, that member cannot take part in the examination of the complaint.

173. The council may dismiss any complaint it considers to be frivolous. It shall advise the complainant of the dismissal and the reasons therefor.

174. Where the council considers that the complaint is admissible, or where the complaint is lodged by the Minister, the council shall transmit a copy of it to the member and, where necessary, to the Minister.

The council shall form an inquiry committee composed of three of its members, which shall be entrusted with conducting an inquiry into the complaint and deciding the complaint on behalf of the council. One member of the committee shall be a member of the Tribunal; another member shall neither practise a legal profession nor be a member of the Tribunal.

175. The council shall designate a chairman from among the members of the committee; the chairman shall call committee sittings.

176. For the purposes of an inquiry, the inquiry committee and its members are vested with the powers and immunity of commissioners appointed under the Act respecting public inquiry commissions, except the power to order imprisonment.

177. The council may, for a compelling reason and after consultation with the inquiry committee, suspend the member for the duration of the inquiry.

178. After giving the member who is the subject of the complaint, the Minister and the complainant an opportunity to be heard, the committee shall decide the complaint.

If the committee finds the complaint to be justified, it may recommend that the member be reprimanded or dismissed.

The committee shall send its inquiry report and conclusions, with reasons therefor, to the council together with its recommendations, if any, concerning the penalty.

179. The council shall then send a copy of the committee's conclusions to the member who is the subject of the complaint, to the complainant and to the Minister.

180. If the committee finds the complaint to be justified, the council, depending on the committee's recommendation, shall administer a reprimand to the member and advise the Minister thereof, or shall send the recommendation for dismissal together with the committee's inquiry report to the Minister.

Where the recommended penalty is the member's dismissal, the council may immediately suspend the member for a period of 30 days.

CHAPTER V

PERMANENT DISABILITY OF A MEMBER AND LAPSE IN THE EXERCISE OF AN ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE

181. At the request of the Minister, who shall send a copy of his request to the member of the Tribunal concerned, the council shall form an inquiry committee entrusted with

(1) determining on his behalf whether the member is suffering from a permanent disability which prevents him from discharging the duties of his office; or

(2) examining a lapse raised as grounds for removal of the president or a vice-president from his administrative office.

182. The committee shall be formed and chaired according to the rules provided for in the second paragraph of section 174 and in section 175. The committee and its members are vested with the powers and immunity referred to in section 176.

183. The council may, for a compelling reason and after consultation with the inquiry committee, suspend the member, the president or the vice-president concerned for the duration of the inquiry.

184. After giving the member, the president or the vice-president concerned and the Minister an opportunity to be heard, the committee shall send its conclusions, with the reasons therefor, to the council.

Where the committee finds there was a lapse in the exercise of an administrative office, the committee may recommend removal from that office. In such case, the committee shall transmit its recommendation and inquiry report to the council.

185. The council shall transmit a copy of the committee's conclusions to the member, the president or the vice-president concerned and to the Minister.

Where applicable, it shall also transmit the committee's recommendation and inquiry report to the Minister.

186. The sums required for the purposes of Title III of this Act shall be taken out of the sums voted annually by the National Assembly.
