EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill amends the Act respecting truck transportation in order to exempt those who supply truck rental services with drivers from the obligation to hold a trucking licence when certain conditions are met, such as exclusive use by the lessee and rental for a minimum period of 30 days.

Bill 60

An Act to amend the Act respecting truck transportation

THE PARLIAMENT OF QUÉBEC ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

1. Section 2 of the Act respecting truck transportation (R.S.Q., chapter C-5.1) is amended by adding, at the end, the following paragraph:

“The first paragraph does not apply to the leasing of a truck with the services of a driver where the following conditions are met:

- (1) the lessor holds a trucking licence;
- (2) the leasing is evidenced in a contract in writing of a minimum term of 30 days, specifying the date on which the leasing begins and the terms and conditions according to which it may be terminated;
- (3) the lessee acquires, for the term of the contract, the possession, control and exclusive use of the truck;
- (4) a copy of the contract is kept in the truck for verification and inspection purposes;
- (5) the contract is in conformity with the regulations.”

2. Section 80 of the said Act, amended by section 7 of chapter 55 of the statutes of 1991, is again amended by inserting, after paragraph 7, the following paragraph:

“(7.1) determine the requirements applicable to a contract for the leasing of a truck with the services of a driver, and prescribe the minimum stipulations;”.

3. This Act comes into force on (insert here the date of assent to this Act).
