EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill establishes an association to be known as the Amicale des anciens parlementaires du Québec. The principal object of the association is to bring together former parliamentarians who were members of the Parliament of Québec as Members of the National Assembly or as legislative councillors.

Bill 391

An Act respecting the Amicale des anciens parlementaires du Québec

THE PARLIAMENT OF QUÉBEC ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

1. An association known as the “Amicale des anciens parlementaires du Québec” is hereby instituted.

2. The association is a legal person.

3. The association has its head office in the territory of the Communauté urbaine de Québec.

4. The affairs of the association are administered by an executive committee composed of six association members.

5. The first executive committee, which shall serve for a term not exceeding one year, shall be composed of six former parliamentarians designated by the Committee on the National Assembly.

6. The objects of the association are

(1) to put the knowledge and experience of former Members and former legislative councillors at the service of parliamentary democracy both in Québec and elsewhere;

(2) to serve the public interest;

(3) to foster a spirit of community among former parliamentarians of the Parliament of Québec;

(4) to promote relations between its members and Members of the National Assembly;

(5) to defend and promote the interests of former parliamentarians of the Parliament of Québec.

7. In the pursuit of its objects, the association may, in particular,

(1) form study groups and organize meetings, seminars and conferences during which former parliamentarians may exchange views with participants and inform themselves on matters of common interest;

(2) attend to the organization of visits of former parliamentarians to the National Assembly;

(3) organize visits, within Québec or elsewhere, to enable former parliamentarians to exchange views with other parliamentarians or other persons and to inform themselves on matters of common interest;

(4) publish journals, monographs, pamphlets, reports of conferences, seminars, discussions and visits and other papers relevant to the objects of the association.

8. The association may solicit and receive gifts, legacies, subsidies and other contributions provided that the conditions attaching thereto are compatible with the objects of the association.

9. Any former parliamentarian having sat in the Parliament of Québec as a Member or a legislative councillor may be a member of the association.

10. The President of the National Assembly is the honorary president of the association.

11. The membership in the association of any member who becomes a Member of the National Assembly shall cease.

12. In the event of dissolution or liquidation, all the assets of the association, after payment of its debts, shall devolve upon the Fondation Jean-Charles-Bonenfant.

13. This Act comes into force on (insert here the date of assent to this Act), except sections 2, 8 and 12, which will come into force on 1 January 1994.
