EXPLANATORY NOTES

This bill amends the Courts of Justice Act to increase the number of judges of the Court of Appeal from 19 to 20 and specify that the judge of the Superior Court responsible for administering justice in the judicial district of Alma will henceforth reside in Alma or in its immediate vicinity.

Certain amendments are made with regard to the Conseil de la magistrature. An additional member will be appointed to that council, chosen from among the persons exercising the functions of chief judge of the Labour Court, president of the Human Rights Tribunal, or chairman of the Professions Tribunal. The council will in addition be permitted to designate former members to sit on a committee of inquiry.

Lastly, the bill establishes that courts sitting in the judicial district of Labelle and Pontiac will have concurrent jurisdiction over the territory of certain townships located in the judicial district of Pontiac.
