Bill 229
(Private)

An Act respecting the Morris Wexler estate

WHEREAS Morris Wexler died on 24 November 1956 leaving a will dated 6 February 1956 made in the form derived from the Laws of England and whereas the will was probated on 27 March 1957 (number 274 of the records of the Superior Court of the district of Montréal for the year 1957);

Whereas the will creates two trusts and the income derived therefrom must be paid to the two daughters and the son of the testator and to their children, the capital to be divided among the great-grandchildren;

Whereas, under paragraph f of clause 9 of the will, the trustees are directed to invest the property of the trusts in bonds issued by the Government of Canada;

Whereas, considering the changes in economic conditions that have occurred since the death of the testator, the trustees wish to be authorized to invest the property of the trusts in accordance with article 981*o* of the Civil Code, and whereas it is expedient to grant such request;

Whereas the surviving descendants of Morris Wexler who are interested in the trusts and who are not trustees are all of full age and whereas they consent to the passing of this Act;

THE PARLIAMENT OF QUÉBEC ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

1. Notwithstanding paragraph f of clause 9 of the will of Morris Wexler dated 6 February 1956 and probated on 27 March 1957 (number 274 of the records of the Superior Court of the district of Montréal for the year 1957), the trustees of the trusts created by the will of Morris Wexler are authorized to invest the property of the trusts in accordance with article 981*o* of the Civil Code.

2. This Act comes into force on (insert here the date of assent to this Act).
