Bill 233

(Private)

An Act respecting Michel Dugas

WHEREAS Michel Dugas, who had been in the employ of Ultramar Inc. since 22 August 1977, was dismissed on 20 April 1982;

Whereas a collective agreement was in force between Ultramar Inc. and l'Union des employés du transport local et autres (local 931) affiliated to the International Brotherhood of Teamsters;

Whereas a grievance contesting the dismissal was filed by the association on the very day of the dismissal;

Whereas on 10 May 1982, without justification, the association advised Michel Dugas that it was no longer proceeding with the grievance;

Whereas in August 1982, Michel Dugas consulted a legal aid advocate who, a few weeks later, refused to proceed with the case;

Whereas owing to that refusal, Michel Dugas lost any recourse he had;

THE PARLIAMENT OF QUÉBEC ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

1. Notwithstanding any applicable prescription, Michel Dugas may apply, before 1 June 1987, to the competent court in order to exercise the recourses provided in the Labour Code, following his dismissal by Ultramar Inc.

2. This Act comes into force on (insert here the date of assent to this Act).
