Bill 278
(PRIVATE)

An Act respecting the Arthur Bousquet estate

WHEREAS Arthur Bousquet, who died on 15 April 1977, disposed of his property by means of a notarial will made on 22 January 1965;

Whereas Arthur Bousquet gave and bequeathed, subject to certain special legacies, the use and usufruct of all his property to his spouse, Alice Goineau Bousquet, during her lifetime;

Whereas Arthur Bousquet bequeathed the remainder of all his property, in equal shares, to nine various religious and charitable institutions;

Whereas each of those religious and charitable institutions will receive its share upon the death of the testator's spouse;

Whereas the testator's spouse is 80 years of age and suffers from various illnesses;

Whereas the income from the estate is insufficient to cover the cost of medical care at home that the testator's spouse will need if the condition of her health deteriorates;

Whereas the testator indicated in his will the wish to provide for the needs of his spouse, during her lifetime, and that it be done before the charitable and religious institutions to which he bequeathed the remainder of his property may be entitled thereto;

HER MAJESTY, with the advice and consent of the National Assembly of Québec, enacts as follows:

1. Notwithstanding the will of Arthur Bousquet made on 22 January 1965, the testamentary executrix, Alice Goineau Bousquet, her mandatary, La Fiducie du Québec, or any other mandatary appointed by the testamentary executrix, is authorized to cut into the capital of the estate to meet the cost of the medical care that may become necessary on account of any serious and lengthy illness of Alice Goineau Bousquet.

2. The costs incurred for the passing of this Act shall be paid out of the mass of the succession.

3. This Act comes into force on the day of its sanction.
