EXPLANATORY NOTE

The main object of this bill is to double the maximum amounts of the development grants available for agricultural operations upon the establishment of young farmers or the enlargement of farms. It also imposes the obligation on every person having obtained a grant to use the farm in respect of which the grant was made for agricultural purposes for a period of ten years from the making of the grant.

Bill 100

An Act to amend the Act to promote the development
of agricultural exploitations

HER MAJESTY, with the advice and consent of the Assemblée
nationale du Québec, enacts as follows:

969, c. 44,
. 2, am.

1. Section 2 of the Act to promote the development of agricultural exploitations (1969, chapter 44), amended by section 29 of chapter 85 of the statutes of 1971 and replaced by section 2 of chapter 38 of the statutes of 1975, is amended by replacing the first three lines of the first paragraph by the following:

Grant for
general
farm improve-ments.

2. The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Bureau, make a grant not exceeding two thousand dollars:”.

969, c. 44,
. 5, am.

2. Section 5 of the said act, amended by section 30 of chapter 85 of the statutes of 1971 and replaced by section 3 of chapter 38 of the statutes of 1975, is amended by replacing the first four lines of the first paragraph by the following:

Grant for
and improvement.

5. The Minister may also, on the recommendation of the Bureau, make a grant not exceeding six thousand dollars:”.

969, c. 44,
. 6a,
added.

3. The said act is amended by inserting, after section 6, the following section:

Lease
resumed.

6a. For the purposes of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of sections 2 and 5, every farmer who, from 1 October 1971, has leased an economic farm to establish himself on is considered to have leased that farm from 1 November 1975.”

969, c. 44,
. 7, am.

4. Section 7 of the said act, replaced by section 4 of chapter 38 of the statutes of 1975, is amended by replacing the first six lines of the first paragraph by the following:

Grant for land
improvement.

"7. The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Bureau, make a grant not exceeding four thousand dollars to any farmer who applies therefor and submits a programme of land improvement to the Bureau and:".

1969, c. 44,
s. 9,
replaced.

5. Section 9 of the said act is replaced by the following section:

Limit of grant in cases of consolidation.

"9. A farmer who benefits or has already benefited by a grant for the consolidation of a farm under section 30 of the Agriculture Department Act, as it read before 22 December 1969, is entitled to the grant provided for in section 7 up to the amount which, added to the amount of the grant for the consolidation of a farm, attains four thousand dollars."

1969, c. 44,
s. 10, am.

6. Section 10 of the said act, amended by section 31 of chapter 85 of the statutes of 1971, section 2 of chapter 34 of the statutes of 1972 and by section 6 of chapter 38 of the statutes of 1975, is again amended by replacing the second paragraph by the following paragraph:

Limit of
grant in certain cases.

"However, where an agricultural operations corporation or an agricultural operations partnership has more than one farm operator not less than eighteen nor more than forty years of age among its shareholders or members each owning twenty per cent or more of the shares of each class issued by the corporation, or among whom the interests of each in the partnership represent, in the opinion of the Bureau, at least twenty per cent of all the interests in such partnership, the maximum grants for which it may qualify under the preceding paragraph may exceed the maximums provided for in sections 2 and 5, but without exceeding the maximums of two thousand dollars and six thousand dollars, respectively, multiplied by the number of such operators."

1969, c. 44,
s. 11,
replaced.

7. Section 11 of the said act, amended by section 3 of chapter 34 of the statutes of 1972 and replaced by section 7 of chapter 38 of the statutes of 1975, is again replaced by the following section:

Conditions
for other grant.

"11. An agricultural operations corporation, an agricultural operations cooperative or an agricultural operations partnership may also benefit by the grant provided for in section 7, on the same conditions as a farmer, except that the maximum grant in that case may amount to a sum equal to the product of four thousand dollars multiplied by the number of farm operators who each own twenty per cent or more of the issued shares of each class, in the case of an agricultural operations corporation, by the number of shareholder-producers or of members, as the case may be, who each own twenty per cent or more of the issued ordinary shares or of the common shares, in the case of an agricultural operations cooperative, or by the number of partners among whom the interest of each in the partnership represents, in the opinion of the Bureau, not less than twenty per cent of the aggregate of the interests in such partnership, in the case of an agricultural operations partnership."

1969, c. 44,
s. 13c,
replaced.

8. Section 13c of the said act, enacted by section 5 of chapter 34 of the statutes of 1972 and replaced by section 12 of chapter 38 of the statutes of 1975, is again replaced by the following section:

Maximum.

"13c. When a group of persons contemplated in section 13a or 13b includes more than one farm operator or farmer who meets the conditions required to render the group eligible for the grants provided for in sections 2 and 5, the maximum grants provided for in those sections may amount to two thousand dollars and six thousand dollars, respectively, multiplied by the number of such farm operators or farmers, as the case may be."

1969, c. 44,
s. 13d,
replaced.

9. Section 13d of the said act, enacted by section 5 of chapter 34 of the statutes of 1972 and replaced by section 13 of chapter 38 of the statutes of 1975, is again replaced by the following section:

Joint
benefit.

"13d. Several natural persons operating an economic farm they hold in undivided ownership, among whom at least sixty per cent of the rights of ownership in the farm are held by one or more farm operators, and joint operators, may benefit jointly by the grant provided for in section 7 on the same conditions as a farmer, except that the maximum grant in such cases may amount to a sum equal to the product of four thousand dollars multiplied by the number of farm operators or farmers, as the case may be, who each own twenty per cent or more of the aggregate of the rights held in undivided ownership of the farm or, as the case may be, of the aggregate of the interests in the economic farm composed of the aggregate of the farms of which the joint operators are the owners or lessees."

1969, c. 44,
s. 15,
replaced;
ss. 15a,
15b, added.

10. Section 15 of the said act, amended by section 6 of chapter 34 of the statutes of 1972 and by section 16 of chapter 38 of the statutes of 1975, is replaced by the following sections:

Grants
to be obtained
only once.
Maximum
amount.

"15. No person may obtain a grant under section 2 or 5 more than once.

No person may obtain under section 7 a grant the amount of which would increase beyond $4 000 the amount already received by a person under such section or beyond $20 000 the sums already received under section 11 or 13*d* by an agricultural operations corporation, an agricultural operations cooperative, an agricultural operations partnership or by a group of persons contemplated in section 13*d*.

Reimbursement.

“15a. Every person, including his legal representatives, who, within ten years from the obtaining of a grant made on or after (insert here the date of the coming into force of this bill), uses or allows to be used for purposes other than agriculture, without the authorization of the Bureau, the farm or the land in respect of which such a grant has been made, must immediately reimburse to the Bureau every amount received in respect of that grant.

Declaration.

“15b. Every owner of an immovable in respect of which a grant is made, is subject, for ten years from the making of such a grant, to the obligation mentioned in section 15*a*. To avail against persons other than the person to whom the grant has been made, the said obligation must be set out in a declaration mentioning each immovable to which it applies and the name of its owner. Such an immovable is described by its cadastral number, if any, mentioning, in the case of an immovable comprising only a part of a lot, that it is a part of the cadastral number concerned, without the obligation of further describing the parts of the lot, notwithstanding article 2168 of the Civil Code. Where there is no cadastral number for that immovable, it must be designated by indicating the seignory or township in which it is situated, the range, if such is the case, the metes and bounds and the name of the person to whom it belongs.

Registration.

The declaration contemplated in the first paragraph is made unilaterally by the Bureau and it constitutes proof prima facie of the existence of the obligation mentioned in section 15*a*. It must be registered by deposit in the registry office of the registration division where the immovable in respect of which the grant has been made is situated and mention of the registration must be entered in the index of immoveables.

Cancellation.

The total or partial cancellation of the registration of the declaration contemplated in the first paragraph is made by an application to that effect by the Bureau. The original of that application, when made by notarial deed en brevet or by a private writing, or an authentic copy of such an application, when it is made in the notarial form en minute, must be kept in the registry office to form part of its records.”

Coming
into force.

11. This act will come into force on the date to be fixed by proclamation of the Government.||
