Chap. III,
Div. I, replaced

13. The heading of Chapter III in the English text and Division I of Chapter III of Title II of the said Act are replaced by the following :

“COMITÉ DE DÉONTOLOGIE POLICIÈRE

“DIVISION I

“ESTABLISHMENT, JURISDICTION AND ORGANIZATION

Ethics committee

89. An ethics committee is established under the name of “Comité de déontologie policière”.

Jurisdiction

The ethics committee has exclusive jurisdiction

(1) to hear and dispose of any citation in matters of police ethics ;

(2) to review any decision of the commissioner referred to in section 76.

Citation

90. A citation is a proceeding subsequent to a complaint concerning the conduct of a police officer, the purpose of which is to decide whether the conduct is a transgression of the Code of ethics which may entail the imposition of a penalty.

Divisions

91. The ethics committee shall comprise three divisions, namely

(1) the division of the Sûreté du Québec, which shall hear and dispose of a citation against any member of that police force ;

(2) the division of the Police Department of the Communauté urbaine de Montréal, which shall hear and dispose of a citation against any member of that police force ;

(3) the division of municipal police forces, which shall hear and dispose of a citation against any member of any other municipal police force.

Seat

92. The seat of the ethics committee is located in the territory of the Communauté urbaine de Québec, at the place determined by the Government ; notice of the location and any relocation of its seat shall be published in the Gazette officielle du Québec.

Place of sittings

The division of the Sûreté du Québec and the division of municipal police forces may sit anywhere in Québec.

- Place of sittings The division of the Police Department of the Communauté urbaine de Montréal may sit anywhere in the territory of that urban community.
- Court premises “93. Where a sitting of the ethics committee is to be held in a locality where the Court of Québec sits, the clerk of the Court is required to allow the committee to use, free of charge, the premises used by the Court, unless the Court is sitting there at that time.
- Restriction In no case may the ethics committee hold a sitting in an immovable occupied by a police force or the police ethics commissioner.
- Composition “94. Each division shall be composed of advocates who have been members of the Barreau du Québec for not less than five years, police officers and members who are neither advocates nor police officers.
- Appointment of members “95. The members of the ethics committee shall be appointed by the Government, in such number as the Government determines, as full-time or part-time members, for a specified term not exceeding five years. Their term may be renewed.
- Term A member whose term has expired may continue to hear and decide a matter notwithstanding the expiry of his term.
- Chairman and vice-chairmen “96. The Government shall designate a chairman and three vice-chairmen from among the full-time members who are advocates and have been members of the Barreau du Québec for not less than ten years.
- Appointment “97. Police officers shall be appointed to the division of the Sûreté du Québec after consultation with the Director General of the Sûreté du Québec.
- Appointment Police officers shall be appointed to the division of the Police Department of the Communauté urbaine de Montréal after consultation with the director of the Police Department, and members who are neither advocates nor police officers shall be appointed to that division after consultation with the executive committee of the Communauté urbaine de Montréal.
- Appointment Police officers shall be appointed to the division of municipal police forces after consultation with the association representing the chiefs of police of Québec, and members who are neither advocates nor police officers shall be appointed to that division after consultation with the bodies which represent the municipalities concerned.

- Remuneration “98. The Government shall fix the remuneration and social benefits of the full-time members and shall determine the other conditions attached to their office.
- Fees “99. The part-time members shall receive the fees determined by the Government. They are also entitled, in the cases, on the conditions and to the extent determined by the Government, to the reimbursement of expenses incurred in the performance of their committee duties.
- Reimbursement of expenses “100. Notwithstanding sections 98 and 99, the members who are police officers are entitled only to the salary they receive from their employer as police officers. Nevertheless, the Minister shall reimburse, in the cases, on the conditions and to the extent determined by the Government, the expenses they incur in the performance of their committee duties.
- Deed of appointment “101. The deed of appointment of each member other than the chairman shall specify the division to which he is appointed.
- Temporary assignment However, the chairman may, for the dispatch of the business of the committee, assign a member temporarily to another division.
- Oath of office “102. Before taking office, the members of the ethics committee shall take the oaths or make the solemn affirmations provided in Schedules I and II.
- Oath They shall do so before a judge of the Court of Québec.
- Writing The writing evidencing the oath or solemn affirmation shall be transmitted to the Minister.
- Clerk “103. The clerk and the other members of the staff of the ethics committee shall be appointed and remunerated in accordance with the Public Service Act.
- Chairman “104. The chairman is responsible for the administration and overall management of the ethics committee. His duties include coordinating and distributing the work of the committee members, who shall comply with his orders and directives in that regard.
- Vice-chairman “105. Each vice-chairman shall preside over the division to which he is appointed.
- Duties Under the authority of the chairman, he shall coordinate the work of his division, fix the date of hearings and designate the members who are to hear a matter.

- Replacement      “106. If the chairman is absent or unable to act, he shall be replaced by the vice-chairman designated by the Government.
- Replacement      If any other member is absent or unable to act, the Government shall appoint another person to replace him while he is absent or unable to act and shall determine his fees.
- Simultaneous sittings      “107. The divisions of the ethics committee may hold several sittings simultaneously.
- Members            “107.1 Sittings of the ethics committee shall be held by three members, namely
- (1) the chairman of the ethics committee, the vice-chairman appointed to the division concerned or a member who is an advocate, designated by the vice-chairman; this person shall preside;
- (2) a member who is a police officer;
- (3) a member who is neither an advocate nor a police officer.
- Decision            The decision rendered by the three members is the decision of the ethics committee.
- Citation against officer      “107.2 The chairman of the ethics committee or one of the vice-chairmen shall preside at every sitting at which a citation against a senior officer or junior officer who is not an employee within the meaning of the syndical plan of his police force is heard and disposed of. Moreover, the police officer who is designated to take part in the sitting must be of equal or higher rank than the police officer cited to appear.
- Fiscal year            “107.3 The fiscal year of the ethics committee ends on 31 March.
- Budget                “107.4 Each year, the ethics committee shall submit its budget for the next fiscal year to the Government for approval, at the time and in the form and tenor determined by the Government.
- Statements and report      “107.5 Within four months after the end of its fiscal year, the ethics committee shall submit to the Minister its financial statements and a report of its activities for the fiscal year just ended.
- Tabling                The Minister shall table the report of the ethics committee in the National Assembly within 30 days after receiving it if the Assembly is in session or, if it is not sitting, within 30 days after the opening of the next session or resumption.

Audit            “107.6 The books and accounts of the ethics committee shall be audited by the Auditor General each year and also whenever the Government so orders.

Authenticity    “107.7 Any document or copy of a document emanating from the ethics committee or forming part of its records, certified by the chairman, a vice-chairman or the clerk, is authentic.”

1988, c. 75,
s. 109,
replaced        14. Section 109 of the said Act is replaced by the following section:

Filing of citation    “109. The ethics committee is seized of a matter by the filing of a citation in the office of the committee.”

Tit. II,
Chap. IV,
replaced        21. Chapter IV of Title II of the said Act is replaced by the following chapter:

"CHAPTER IV

"APPEAL

- Complainant      "135. Within 20 days after notification of the decision of the ethics committee, the person who lodged the complaint under section 51 may transmit in writing to the commissioner his views as to the advisability of appealing from the decision.
- Appeal              "136. Any person who is a party to proceedings before the ethics committee may bring an appeal from any final decision of the committee before a judge of the Court of Québec.
- Jurisdiction      "137. The jurisdiction conferred by this chapter on a judge of the Court of Québec shall be exercised by those judges of that Court who are so designated by the chief judge and the senior associate chief judge, within the limits of their respective territorial jurisdictions.
- Notice of appeal      "138. An appeal is brought by filing a notice of appeal, within 30 days after the appellant receives the decision of the ethics committee, in the office of the Court of Québec in the judicial district where the ethics committee heard the matter in first instance.
- Content             The notice of appeal shall contain a statement of the grounds for the appeal and be accompanied with a copy of the decision rendered by the ethics committee.
- Service             "139. The notice of appeal shall be served, within the time limit fixed in section 138, on the parties, the ethics committee and the person who lodged the complaint.
- Service             Service may be made by registered or certified mail.
- Transmission of record      "140. Upon service of the notice of appeal, the clerk of the ethics committee shall transmit to the clerk of the Court of Québec the record of the case and all documents relating thereto.
- Execution suspended      "141. The appeal suspends the execution of the decision of the ethics committee.
- Hearing of appeal      "142. The appeal shall be heard and decided by preference.
- Decision            "143. Subject to any new relevant and useful evidence the judge may admit, he shall render his decision on the basis of the record transmitted to the Court, after allowing the parties to be heard.
- Powers of judge      "144. The judge has all the necessary powers for the exercise of his jurisdiction. He may, in particular, render any order he deems expedient for the protection of the rights of the parties.

- Applicable provisions      “145. Sections 53 and 124, the second paragraph of section 129 and sections 131 and 132, adapted as required, apply to appeals heard pursuant to this chapter.
- Decision on appeal      “146. The judge may confirm the decision submitted to him; conversely, he may quash the decision and render the decision which, in his judgment, should have been rendered in the first instance.
- Decision final and executory      “147. The decision of the judge is final and without appeal and cannot be submitted to an arbitrator contemplated by Chapter IV of the Labour Code or to an arbitration officer contemplated by Division III of the Act respecting the Syndical Plan of the Sûreté du Québec. It is executory notwithstanding any contrary Act or agreement.
- Revision      “148. The judge may revise or revoke any decision he has made where a new fact is discovered which, if it had been known in due time, might have justified a different decision.
- Rules      “149. The Court of Québec may, in the manner set out in the Courts of Justice Act (R.S.Q., chapter T-16), adopt such rules of evidence, procedure and practice as are necessary for the carrying out of this chapter.”
- 1988, c. 75, s. 175, am.      22. Section 175 of the said Act is amended by replacing the word “three” in the first line of the first paragraph by the word “five”.
