CHAPTER 56

An Act to amend the Act respecting elections and referendums in municipalities and other legislation

[Assented to 22 June 1989]

THE PARLIAMENT OF QUÉBEC ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

ACT RESPECTING ELECTIONS AND REFERENDUMS IN MUNICIPALITIES

c. E-2.2,
s. 67, am. 1. Section 67 of the Act respecting elections and referendums in municipalities (R.S.Q., chapter E-2.2) is amended

(1) by replacing the words “an office on the council that is not open for nominations or if he holds office as a” in the second and third lines by the words “office as”;

(2) by adding, at the end, the following paragraph:

Ineligibility “Any person who is already holding another office on the council of a municipality is also ineligible for office as a member of the council, except in the event of an election at which the office held by him is open for nominations or ceases to exist.”

c. E-2.2,
s. 305, am. 2. Section 305 of the said Act is amended

(1) by adding the word “executive” before the word “officer” in the third line of paragraph 2;

(2) by inserting, after paragraph 2, the following paragraph:

“(2.1) where the interest of the person arises from the fact that he is a member, director or executive officer of another municipal body, a public body within the meaning of the Act respecting Access to documents held by public bodies and the Protection of personal information (R.S.Q., chapter A-2.1), a non-profit organization or an organization of which he is required by law, as a member of the council of that municipality or that municipal body, to be a member, a director or an executive officer;”.

c. E-2.2,
s. 314, am. 3. Section 314 of the said Act is amended by replacing the second paragraph by the following paragraphs:

Expiry “The term of a person holding office as councillor expires when the candidate elected to the office at the regular election makes the oath of office or, if he fails to do so, at the expiry of the time prescribed therefor.

Expiry However, where a person holding office is a candidate for another office at a regular election, his term expires at the time the candidate elected to either office makes the oath of office or, if he fails to do so, at the expiry of the time prescribed therefor.”

c. E-2.2,
ss. 314.1 and 314.2, added 4. The said Act is amended by inserting, after section 314, the following sections:

Beginning
of term “314.1 Notwithstanding sections 313 and 314, where a change affecting the composition of the council, such as a change described in the third paragraph, takes effect following a regular election,

(1) the term of a candidate elected to the office of councillor for a seat open for nominations at that election shall begin on the later of the following events:

(a) when he makes the oath of office;

(b) when the majority of the candidates elected to the office of councillor have made the oath of office;

(2) the term of every councillor whose seat is open for nominations or ceases to exist following that election shall expire at the time specified in paragraph b of subparagraph 1.

Beginning
of term However, if the majority of the candidates elected to the office of councillor for seats open for nominations at the election have not made the oath of office before the thirty-fifth day following polling day, the term of a candidate who has made the oath of office shall begin on that day and the term of the councillors referred to subparagraph 2 of the first paragraph shall expire at the same time.

Changes in composition of council Changes affecting the composition of the council and giving rise to the application of the first or second paragraph are as follows:

(1) a reduction in the number of numbered seats of councillor;

(2) the beginning or end of the division of the territory for election purposes;

(3) the replacement of a division of the territory into wards by a division into electoral districts;

(4) a change in the boundaries of any of the electoral districts.

Notice

The clerk or the secretary-treasurer shall give notice in writing to every person affected by this section of the date of the beginning or expiry of his term.

Sittings during election period

“314.2 During the period commencing at 4:30 in the afternoon twenty-three days before polling day in a regular election and ending when the majority of the candidates elected to the office of councillor for seats open for nominations at that election have made the oath of office, the council shall not sit unless a fortuitous event necessitating its intervention occurs. Deliberations during such a sitting shall pertain only to such event.

End of period

If the majority of the candidates elected to the office of councillor for seats open for nominations at the election have not made the oath of office before the thirty-fifth day following polling day, the provisions of the first paragraph cease to apply from the beginning of that day.”

c. E-2.2, s. 334, replaced

5. Section 334 of the said Act is replaced by the following section:

Applicability

“334. This chapter does not apply to a vacancy existing, as a result of the application of the third paragraph of section 314 or of section 314.1, between the expiry of a term occurring after the regular election of a candidate to that office and the beginning of his term.”

CITIES AND TOWNS ACT

c. C-19, s. 1, am.

6. Section 1 of the Cities and Towns Act (R.S.Q., chapter C-19), amended by section 230 of chapter 19 of the statutes of 1988, is again amended by replacing the figure “232” in the fourth line of subparagraph d of the first paragraph by the figure “235”.

MISCELLANEOUS, TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

Publication by the Minister

17. The Minister of Municipal Affairs may, at any time before 1 January 1991, publish in the Gazette officielle du Québec a list of municipalities in which the by-law provided for in section 867 of the Act respecting elections and referendums in municipalities was adopted before 1 January 1988 but not put into force before that date.

Approval

For the purposes of sections 2 and 868 of the said Act, the by-law of a municipality contemplated by the first paragraph is deemed to have been approved by the Minister and to have come into force on 31 December 1987.

Reference

A reference to this section shall be entered in the book of by-laws of the municipality, opposite the by-law referred to in the first paragraph.

Retroactive effect

18. Section 2 has effect from 1 January 1988 and section 6 has effect from 1 January 1989.

Cases
pending

This retroactive effect does not apply to cases pending on 15 May 1989.

Coming into force

19. This Act comes into force on 22 June 1989.
