|----------------------|--|
| Deputy Minister | 4. The Deputy Minister of Cultural Communities and Immigration or the person he delegates therefor shall attend the meetings of the Conseil but is not entitled to vote. |
| Terms of office | 5. The president and the vice-presidents are appointed for not more than five years. |
| Terms of office | The other members are appointed for not more than three years; however, four members of the first Conseil shall be appointed for one year, four for two years and four for three years. |
| Renewal | The term of office of a member may be renewed consecutively only once. At the end of his term, a member remains in office until he is replaced or reappointed. |
| Vacancy | 6. Any vacancy occurring during a term of office among the members of the Conseil shall be filled in accordance with the mode of appointment prescribed in section 3. |
| Absence | Absence from a number of meetings determined by the by-laws of internal management of the Conseil, in the cases and circumstances indicated therein, constitutes a vacancy. |
| Administration | 7. The president shall administer the Conseil and direct the staff. |
| Vice-presidents | The vice-presidents, each according to his field, shall assist the president in the exercise of his duties. |
| Replacement | 8. If the president is unable to act, the Minister of Cultural Communities and Immigration shall designate one of the vice-presidents to replace him. |
| Full time office | 9. The president and the vice-presidents shall exercise their duties full time. |
| Remuneration | The Government shall fix the remuneration, social benefits and other conditions of employment of the president and the vice-presidents. |
| Attendance allowance | 10. Members of the Conseil other than the president and the vice-presidents are not remunerated. They are, however, entitled, to the extent provided by regulation of the Government and on presentation of vouchers, to an attendance allowance and to the reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred by them in the performance of their duties. |
| Meetings | 11. The Conseil may hold its meetings at any place in Québec. |
| Meetings | It shall meet at least once every three months. |

Quorum The majority of the members constitute a quorum at the meetings of the Conseil.

Tie-vote In case of a tie-vote, the president has a casting vote.

Personnel 12. The secretary and the other members of the staff of the Conseil are appointed and remunerated in accordance with the Public Service Act (1983, chapter 55).

DIVISION II

FUNCTIONS AND POWERS

Function of the Conseil 13. The function of the Conseil is to advise the Minister of Cultural Communities and Immigration on any matter related to cultural communities and immigration.

Powers 14. In the discharge of its function, the Conseil may

(1) advise the Minister on the planning, coordinating and implementing of the policies of the Government related to cultural communities and immigration;

(2) present a formal opinion to the Minister on any matter related to cultural communities and immigration that calls for attention or action by the Government, together with its recommendations;

(3) ask for opinions, and receive and hear requests and suggestions from persons and groups on matters related to cultural communities and immigration;

(4) conduct or commission any studies or research it deems advisable or necessary for the discharge of its function.

Advice to the Minister 15. The Conseil shall advise the Minister on any matter he submits to it in connection with cultural communities and immigration. It shall also conduct or commission any studies or research it is requested to do by the Minister.

Opinions 16. The Conseil may publicize the opinions it presents to the Minister.

Special committees 17. With the authorization of the Minister, the Conseil may set up special committees to look into special matters and specify their powers. It shall set up such committees if requested by the Minister.

Composition With the authorization of the Minister, the committees may consist, in whole or in part, of persons who are not members of the Conseil.

Attendance allowance

The members of the committees are not remunerated. They are, however, entitled, to the extent provided by regulation of the Government and on presentation of vouchers, to an attendance allowance and to the reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred by them in the performance of their duties.

Internal management

18. The Conseil shall make by-laws for its internal management. The by-laws shall be submitted to the Government for approval.

DIVISION III

REPORT

Annual
report

19. The Conseil shall send to the Minister, not later than 31 July each year, a report of its activities for the preceding fiscal year.

Tabling

20. The Minister shall table the report in the National Assembly within 30 days of receiving it, if it is in session, or, if it is not sitting, within 30 days of the opening of the next session or resumption.
