“CHAPTER IV

“SUMMARY APPEAL

“DIVISION I

“APPLICATION AND JURISDICTION

Small Claims
Division

“93.2 An individual may bring a summary appeal before the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court sitting in the chief place of the district in which he resides or the district of Montréal or Québec, instead of instituting any other action before the Provincial Court, where the object of the summary appeal is

(a) for a taxation year, in the case of the application of Part I of the Taxation Act,

i. a reduction in computing the income or taxable income not exceeding $5 000 and not arising from a loss incurred during the year or in any other taxation year, the amount of which exceeds $5 000, or

ii. a reduction in the tax computed under Book V not exceeding $1 650 and not arising from a loss described in subparagraph i;

(b) an allocation under the first paragraph of section 31 not exceeding $1 000;

(c) exclusively the determination of interest or penalties not exceeding $1 000.

Jurisdiction “93.3 The jurisdiction of the Court is increased on 1 January each year by adjusting the amounts described in section 93.2 according to the percentage of increase in the prescribed ratio under section 694.1 of the Taxation Act.

Multiple of 50 The amounts are rounded to the nearest multiple of $50.

Jurisdiction “93.4 The jurisdiction of the court extends to the interest and penalties incidental to the object of a summary appeal even if the total amount exceeds, owing to the interest and penalties, the amount described in this division in respect of the object of the appeal.

Applicability “93.5 This chapter does not apply to an individual who is bound, as a mandatory of the Minister, to deduct, withhold or collect an amount under a fiscal law or a regulation under such a law.

Prohibition “93.6 No individual may, to avail himself of this chapter, divide, directly or indirectly, the object of a right of action into so many objects that may give rise to summary appeal.

limitation The first paragraph does not prevent any voluntary limitation of the object of a right of action so that it may give rise to summary appeal.

Nullity “93.7 Where a summary appeal and another action before the Provincial Court have wholly or partly the same object or relate to the same year, the summary appeal is null, as is any proceeding or judgment relating thereto.

Referral “93.8 Where a summary appeal pending before the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court may be the object of another action before the Provincial Court, the parties may, before the hearing, file a consent in the office of the Small Claims Division so that the record may be entered on the roll of the Provincial Court and dealt with according to the procedure governing ordinary actions before that court.

- Referral The same rule applies, mutatis mutandis, to allow any action pending before the Provincial Court to be continued before the Small Claims Division.
- Motion “93.9 Upon a motion filed before the hearing with a judge of the Provincial Court by one of the parties, a summary appeal may be entered on the roll of the Provincial Court to be dealt with in accordance with the procedure governing ordinary actions before that Court.
- Admissibility The motion is admissible, in regard to the Deputy Minister, only to the extent that the summary appeal could be brought by several persons concerned with the same series of transactions or events or if it bears on questions of fact or of law likely to affect any current or possible assessment, decision, determination or allocation.
- Exercise of jurisdiction “93.10 The jurisdiction conferred by this chapter is exercised only by the judges of the Provincial Court appointed every year by the chief judge or senior associate chief judge, each within his territorial jurisdiction.

“DIVISION II

“PROCEDURE

- Time limit “93.11 An individual having objected to an assessment, decision or determination within the time limit prescribed by a fiscal law may bring a summary appeal within the time limit prescribed by the said law for appeal before the Provincial Court.
- Time limit In the case of an allocation of payment, the individual may bring a summary appeal within the time limit prescribed by section 33.1.
- Extension “93.12 Where an individual was physically unable to act or to give a mandate to act in his name within the time limit to bring a summary appeal and not more than one year has passed from the first day on which such an appeal could have been brought, he may apply to a judge of the Provincial Court to extend the time limit, for a period not to go beyond the fifteenth day following the date of the judgment granting the extension.
- Prescribed form “93.13 A summary appeal is exercised by means of the form prescribed to that effect, in which the individual shall set out the reasons for his application and all the relevant facts and which he shall file with or send by registered or certified mail to the office of the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court with $20 to cover costs.
- Copies to the Minister “93.14 Upon receipt of a summary appeal, the clerk shall immediately send two copies thereof to the Minister who shall then send to him without delay a copy of the notice of assessment, of the notice of objection and of the notification, and a copy of any other necessary document.

- Referral of the record “93.15 If the court or a judge of the Provincial Court finds that the individual could not avail himself of this chapter, it or he shall order that the record be entered on the roll of the Provincial Court so that it may be dealt with in accordance with the procedure governing ordinary actions before that Court.
- Applicable provisions “93.16 The second and third paragraphs of article 967, articles 969 and 970.1, the first paragraph of article 971 and articles 973, 974, 976 and 977 of the Code of Civil Procedure (R.S.Q., chapter C-25) apply, mutatis mutandis, to the hearing of any summary appeal.
- Expert's testimony Notwithstanding this section, no expert's testimony may be heard except pursuant to article 977 of the said Code.
- Hearing “93.17 The hearing is public.
- Hearing Notwithstanding this section, the court may order that the hearing be in camera whenever the individual requests it.
- Representatives “93.18 Notwithstanding section 34 of the Charter of human rights and freedoms (R.S.Q., chapter C-12), an individual may neither be represented nor be assisted by a third person and the Deputy Minister may be represented only by a public servant who is not an advocate.
- Referral to the Provincial Court If the individual cannot act personally, the summary appeal is ex officio entered on the roll of the Provincial Court to be dealt with in accordance with the procedure governing ordinary actions before the Court.
- Burden of proof “93.19 Where the appeal regards the penalty prescribed in section 1049 of the Taxation Act, the burden of proof concerning the facts contemplated in the said section is on the Minister.
- Powers of the court “93.20 The court may dismiss the summary appeal or vacate or vary any assessment, decision, determination or allocation of payment, or refer it to the Minister for reconsideration.
- Restriction The court shall not vacate or vary an assessment, a decision or a determination by reason only of any irregularity, informality, omission or error on the part of anyone in the observance of any non-peremptory provision.
- Applicable provisions “93.21 The first and second paragraphs of article 978 and articles 979 to 981, 990 and 991 of the Code of Civil Procedure apply, mutatis mutandis, to any judgment on summary appeal.
