

CHAPTER 75

An Act respecting the Jean-Louis Brissette estate

[Assented to 23 June 1982]

Preamble. WHEREAS Jean-Louis Brissette died on 4 June 1954 leaving a will dated 7 March 1953 made in the form derived from the laws of England and probated by the Superior Court of the district of Terrebonne on 29 June 1954, copy of which was deposited in the office of the registration division of Terrebonne under number 209969;

Whereas the will creates a trust for the purpose, in particular, of providing to Claire Sigouin, surviving spouse of the deceased, from the age of majority of her daughter Jocelyne, an annual pension of six thousand dollars;

Whereas the pension has become insufficient to ensure a proper standard of living to the beneficiary and whereas it is expedient that the pension be increased from six thousand dollars to fifteen thousand dollars, adjusted annually;

Whereas, furthermore, the revenues of the estate are sufficient to provide for the increase and the adjustment;

HER MAJESTY, with the advice and consent of the National Assembly of Québec, enacts as follows:

Indexation of pension. 1. Notwithstanding the will of Jean-Louis Brissette dated 7 March 1953 made in the form derived from the laws of England and probated by the Superior Court of the district of Terrebonne on 29 June 1954, copy of which was deposited in the office of the registration division of Terrebonne under number 209969, the annual pension payable to Claire Sigouin, surviving spouse of the testator, is increased from six thousand dollars to fifteen thousand dollars and is adjusted in accordance with the annual Pension Index established in accordance with section 119 of the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan (R.S.Q., chapter R-9) as of the date of the sanction of this Act.

Coming into force.

2. This Act comes into force on the day of its sanction.

CHAPTER 76

An Act respecting the Robert Meighen estate

[Assented to 23 June 1982]

Preamble. WHEREAS Robert Meighen died on 13 July 1911, leaving a last will and testament passed on 7 December 1910;

The said last will and testament bequeathed to the testator's wife, during her lifetime, the net annual income derived from his residuary estate;

The testator's wife died on 12 July 1917;

The said last will and testament established a trust on the death of the testator's wife for the benefit of his daughter Margaret Isabella Smith Meighen, wife of Richard Osborn Harley, and her children and grandchildren;

The said trust may conceivably continue for a long time;

The said last will and testament confers upon the executors appointed thereby or thereunder the power "To invest all sums which ought to be invested in such securities as they may deem proper, avoiding industrials and seeking safety of the Capital, rather than a high rate of Interest and choosing by preference such securities as Municipal Bonds and those of first class Railways and Mortgages...";

The restrictions which that clause places upon the investment powers of the executors may have been advisable at the time of the making of the last will and for some time thereafter, but are unrealistic under present economic conditions;

The said clause, particularly the expression "industrials", is more and more difficult to interpret and apply;

It is in the interest of the beneficiaries that the executors be enabled to invest the trust property in conformity with article 981o of the Civil Code;

HER MAJESTY, with the advice and consent of the National Assembly of Québec, enacts as follows:

Authorized
ment.

1. Notwithstanding the last will and testament of Robert Meighen, passed before Édouard Cholette and William de M. Marler, notaries, on 7 December 1910 under number 29024 of the latter's minutes, and registered in the registry office for the registration division of Montreal West under number 151528, the executors appointed thereby or thereunder are authorized to invest the property of the trust created thereby in conformity with article 981o of the Civil Code.

Coming into force.

2. This Act comes into force on the day of its sanction.
